

Bonita Bessick

May 27, 1951 - November 19, 2014

BONITA BESSICK was the first of two children born to the late John Hunt and Violet Boswell. She was born May 27, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Wednesday, November 19, 2014, God called her home.

Bonita received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Bonita was so filled with the love of helping others that immediately following high school, she took on a host of employments: College Manor, Embassy Suites, and last, but not least, Keswick Nursing, just to name a few. She did just that by feeding, loving and nurturing all who came her way. She was able to continue to do so until her health wouldn't allow her to do so. But not even her health could keep her from speaking or keeping it real. She would be eager to let you know the truth. She enjoyed looking good and dressing to the nines. She was our very own Fashionista.

Bonita didn't believe in letting the grass grow under her feet. She loved to travel and was a very independent woman. Bonita leaves to cherish her loving memory: her brother, Jeffrey Neal; two daughters, Tracey Boswell and Towanda Bessick; one son-in-law, Sean Davis Sr.; eleven grandchildren, Jason Boswell, Christopher Johnson, Ebony, Anthony Juan Floyd, Deonte Jacobs (who preceded her in death), Sean Jr., Qaalee, Jamiel, Hassan, Haseena and Amyah Davis; great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends; including a dear friend, Patricia Brunson.
