

Bonnie Jean Johnson-Eaton

September 15, 1962 - December 7, 2024

Bonnie Johnson-Eaton, a cherished mother, grandmother, sister, cousin, friend, and confidant, passed away suddenly on December 7, 2024. Born on September 15, 1962, Bonnie was celebrated for her generous heart and radiant smile.

Bonnie devoted her life to caring for others, spending 15 years as a compassionate nurse at Shock Trauma. During the AIDS pandemic, her passion for helping others led her to run a daycare where all were welcome without prejudice. Her natural ability to uplift those around her and her unwavering optimism left a lasting impact on everyone she met.

A talented crafter, Bonnie found joy in creating beauty with her hands. She loved the water and often enjoyed watching videos of dolphins swimming and playing. Her greatest pride and joy were her daughters, and her grandchildren Lashell, and Kristan Mack, whom she affectionately called her best friends. Bonnie's legacy of love and kindness continues through her five cherished grandchildren: Taylor, London, Joseph, John, and Helena and Nephew Bruce Johnson, whom she thought to be a son. She taught them the importance of loving each other and themselves.

She is survived by John Mack, the father of her children, and her siblings, Linda, Barry, Ronnie, and Jeffery, Son In Law John Rouse along with a host of nieces and nephews., cousins and other family members. Bonnie was preceded in death by her parents, George Johnson and Gloria Johnson-Eaton, and her siblings Helen Eaton and Christopher Johnson, whom she now joins in eternal rest.

Bonnie's life was a testament to the power of love, care, and positivity. Her memory will be treasured by all who knew her, and her spirit will continue to inspire those she leaves behind. One of her favorite quotes was, "God don't like ugly and care very little for beauty," which drove her to always see the best in others.
