

Brandon Christopher Hendricks

September 11, 2004 - October 24, 2004

Praise God from whom all blessing flow. Before Brandon was formed in his mother's womb the Lord already knew him. The Lord also knew that Brandon would need to be loved, cherished, and raised in a Christ centered home. The Lord knew the two people who would fulfill these obligations. Therefore, Brandon Christopher made his grand entrance into the world September 11, 2004 in the loving arms of his parents, Tiffany and Malcolm Hendricks. Brandon filled his parent's hearts and their home with excitement. Life with Brandon was centered around Brandon in the Hendricks household. Even his little sister Amani, who was the center of attention, did not mind sharing the spot light with her brand new little brother. Brandon had his way of letting his parents know when he wanted to be fed. Yet, once he was in their arms, he curled up in a position that signified how safe he felt. Once Brandon was fed and fell asleep, the noise in the household that sometimes included his sisters demanding cries seemed to soothe and comfort him and he would continue to sleep peacefully. Brandon's parents had hopes and dreams of their son's future as most parents do. However, the Lord only loaned Brandon to his parents a short while and decided it was time for Brandon to come home. It was time for Brandon to curl up in Jesus arms where he would be safe forever and forever be comforted. While it is not easy to see our little ones taken away in a time that we see as premature, we must reflect upon David's word in II Samuel 12:23, whereas David knew he would see his son again ("I shall go to him but he shall not return to me") The family who continues to cherish Brandon's memories are his parents, Tiffany and Malcolm; his sisters, Myana and Amani; grandparents, Leola and Alvis Jenkins, Kenneth and Degracia Hendricks and Lenore Reed; great grandmother, Joanne Hendricks; aunts, Tylene Jenkins-Smith and Shannon Reed; uncles, Alvis Jr. Jenkins and Jarrid Reed; godparents, Kimberly and Chaddrick Bibb; and a host of other family members and friends.

“ *Please accept my deepest sympathy. Remember that God is near those broken at heart and crushed in spirit. (Psalms 34:18) He also promises a resurrection of our loved ones at John 5:28&29 - just as Jesus resurrected the widow's young son and "gave the son to his mother." “ To the family of little Brandon, Please accept my deepest sympathy. During this time and the days and weeks to come, may you find comfort from, "...the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ...who comforts us in all our tribulation..." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family, I want to express my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your son, Brandon. I truly understand what you are going through, because I lost my daughter who was only 3 months old when she died. She too like Brandon, brought life to our family and was the sweetest baby. To get through each day, I would throw my anxieties on God because I know he cares for me. (1 Peter 5:7) I also persevered in prayer. (Romans 12:12) Talking to God constantly helped me to endure the rough moments and I know this will help you too. I am looking forward to the hour...in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrection of life John 5:28 & 29. This is a magnificent expression of God's undeserved kindness and love. I know that you, like me, can't wait to see your child again.##imported-begin##Mertina Elliott##imported-end##

“ To the Hendricks Family: Sorry to learn of the death of your young loved one. Death certainly separates families, but it won't always be that way. God will get rid of death as 1 Corinthians 15:26 promises. What about little Brandon? The Bible gives the hope of seeing him again. Please notice how this is brought out at Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." It is our hope that these promises will strengthen you until it is God's time to do these things.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
