

Brandon Bouvier Ellis

September 19, 1983 - August 30, 2014

Brandon Bouvier Ellis was born on September 19, 1983 to Jacquelyn Knight and Barry Ellis of Richmond, VA. He was the apple of his mother's eye, and she made sure he knew she believed in love at first sight because of that day.

He played all sports from flag football for Glen Lea Little League to wrestling for Brookland Middle School's wrestling team. He was also on the football team for the mighty Henrico High School Warriors in 1999 when they made it to the State Championship. He would go on to graduate from Henrico High School in 2001.

Brandon loved sports and was an avid Dallas Cowboy, Chicago Bulls, and Florida State fan. You would be fighting a losing battle to argue with him about anything, but in particular sports, because in his words "he was brilliant." His favorite things to do were fishing, travelling, shopping, and caring for his dogs. He had pet names for everybody-especially the people he was most fond of: Dukes, Bo and Lean, Tina, K, Tinka Butt, and Pudding Tang.

Brandon worked for Aireco Supply, Inc. for 13 years as a Counter Sales Representative and received several awards for top sales. He loved what he did and his customers were also his friends. He never met a stranger. To know him was to love him. He had a circle of friends that was his crew, and he was dedicated to them and their friendship. Although his time here was short, his life had an enormous impact on everyone he came in contact with. He was a dedicated son, grandson, nephew, cousin and friend.

Brandon will be greatly missed by his loving and devoted mother, Jacquelyn Hill, step-father William Hill, Jr., father, Barry Ellis; maternal grandparents; Douglas and Arlene Knight; step-sister Williamesha Hill; step-brother William Hill, III; aunts; Dorothy Morris (Robert) and Dawn Wilkerson (Hugh); uncles: Douglas Knight, Jr., Darryn Briggs (Lori), Garry Ellis, Sidney Ellis, and Terrance Ellis (Tonette); great aunts: Doris Carter, Barbara Crosby, Marjorie Edwards, Audrey Patterson and Grace Epps; great-great aunts: Dorothy Hewlett and Berniss Byrd (Edward); great-great uncle, Dana Payne of Detroit; God Parents: Kristina Molyneaux and Brian Vaughan; niece, Amari Hill; Goddaughter, Bella Bailey; and a host of other relatives and friends, including: a devoted cousin, Kevin Fitzgerald, girlfriend, Stephanie Turner and his "brothers:" Jamaal Bailey, Antoine Lewis, Joe White, Donell O'Neil, William Pierce, Wayne Wood, Justin Tisddale and Terrance Banner.

“ Our family ties are inextricably bound. Brandon-isms are lovingly shared beyond the corridors of Richmond and will carry-on. He brought his Uncle Darryn great joy and pride. And we, by extension, happily shared in that.

“ *To Brandon,
You will be truly missed, I've only known you for a short time but I'm glad to have known you for a short time than not at all. you was there for me with good advice when I needed it, a very wise young man that was ahead of his time. To the Ellis family and friends my prayers are with you all.*

From a friend to no end... until we meet again...

“ My prayers and wishes go out to my family (Jackie, Dee Dee, Doug, Mr. & Mrs. Knight & Barry) I love you all so much! and to Brandon's Love - all Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, Aunts, Uncles & Friends:

*“I Wish for you
Comfort on difficult days,
Smiles when sadness intrudes,
Rainbows to follow the clouds,
Laughter to kiss your lips,
Sunsets to warm your heart,
Gentle hugs when spirits sag,
Friendships to brighten your being,
Beauty for your eyes to see,
Confidence for when in doubt,
Faith so that you can believe,
Patience to accept the truth,
And love to complete your life.”*

*Love Always

“ Even thou Brandon and I weren't close friends I still counted him as one of my few friends I have. Brandon never had anything negative to say about anybody or anything. He was always positive and uplifting. He will be missed by all who ever knew him.

I work for W.G.Speaks Inc. I would go into Aireco every so often and see Barry when he worked there. After Barry left and Brandon took his place Brandon and I became good friends. My condolences go out to the Brandons Family. Take comfort in knowing he is in a better place and one day we will all be together again.

“ To Barry & the entire family of Brandon B. Ellis,

It is times such as this that you will find there are others who are praying a prayer of comfort, strength and peace for you to endure not just today but in the many days ahead. Our hearts were heavy and sadden by the loss of your son. Our deepest condolences are being sent to you from Lady C, Mom & Pop Williams, Carla & Nikisha. Rest assured that we are here for you in your time of need. As I leave you with these words, just know you are loved and Brandon will be missed and may you find comfort through the many promises of God....."God grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can and the Wisdom to know the difference." With love and deepest sympathy, Lady C and family.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Brandon about a year ago and he was always very respectful and kind "Ms. Jacque he called me! Later I found out he was the son of and he knew my children. Oh how Richmond is small! He was a definitely a very kind young man and endured nothing less than a smile when he was in my presence. I send my deepest condolences to the family and his closest friends. Loosing a loved one is never easy but I pray that God give you all peace and blessings by nothing but the fondest memories of a great young man.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. The Bible also assures us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
