“ It has only been two months since I had to say good bye to you dear nephew. I will always have you in my heart. You don't have to worry, you are in a better place with love ones that went before you. We know you are in good hands until we see each other again.

*Love,
Aunt Stephanie*

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Brandon. Find strength in God by turning to him in prayer. God can supply the curative comfort that is needed. Prayer to him, along with seeking to learn and to do his will, will certainly bring healing to the aching heart.

"This means everlasting life, their coming to know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." - John 17:3.

Cheryl D. - August 13, 2015 at 03:09 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
