

Brandon J. Hyman

June 19, 1989 - January 20, 2019

Brandon Jamal Hyman, at the age of 29 took his final flight. One that we were not prepared for, however Brandon had made preparations for his final destination - Heaven.

Brandon lovingly known as Twizz, son of Sandra Smith and Jack Hyman was born at Johns Hopkins Hospital on June 19, 1989. He departed this life after a short illness on January 20, 2009.

Brandon was raised in Baltimore City. He received his education through the Baltimore City Public School system where he obtained his High School Diploma from Francis M. Wood Vocational High School. Brandon was a devoted member of the ROTC program. Upon graduation, he enrolled into the North American Trade School of Baltimore where he graduated as a Certified HVAC Technician. Shortly after graduating, Brandon became employed as a Maintenance Technician for RMI. He held this position for several years until he became employed with Canada Dry Inc. This position made Brandon feel right at home. He adored the work and felt he finally found long term employment until he was old enough to retire.

Twizz was considered to be a big teddy bear with an even bigger heart. He was known for his love fashion and fine jewelry. At the top of his "things t do list" was cracking jokes and making others laugh. Twizz was a true comedian at heart. His friends and family would often encourage him to try out for a professional comedian job because he was just naturally funny. Twizz loved eating good food and listening to music but he loved nothing more than his family.

Whenever Brandon was in the presence of his family, he would shower them with love and plenty of jokes. His huge heart and bright smile would attract the love of many. Brandon had a long-term relationship with Tyra Fenwick and from this union they had a daughter, Braylen was his world and he lived to make her happy. The profound relationship he had with Braylen cannot be measured by words.

Brandon's infectious smile and playful personality has created life long memories that his love-ones will forever cherish.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: mother, Sandra Smith, father, Jack T. Hyman: one daughter, Braylen L. Hyman: sister, Teaira Hyman: brother, Jack J. Hyman: four best friends, Travon Patterson (Tray), Ernest Simms (E), Bernard Reed (Poppa), and Byron Davis (Pat) whom he grew up with, saw on a daily basis, and loved tremendously: one uncle, Lydell C. Smith whom he had a very strong bond with; a very special daughter Aniyah Joinas, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Brandon was loved by all who knew him and will be truly missed.
