

Brandon James Commander

February 26, 2005 - July 20, 2006

BRANDON JAMES COMMANDER was born to Jonathan and Crystal Commander on February 26, 2005. He started walking at one year old. Some of his favorite words were Da-Da, Ma, Vra-Ma (Grandma) and most recently, "B" (his name). Brandon had a beautiful, happy personality. He had a fascination with trees which expressed his interest in Jehovah's Creation. He loved playing with his brother and sister Jaz and Jake, and when at Grandma Kathy's house he played with his cousins, Nina and Tyson, with much joy. Brandon's death is greatly mourned today but as an anchor and foundation the Bible gives the resurrection hope. (John 5:28, 29; Revelation 21:4) He leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Crystal and Jonathan Commander; siblings, Jake and Jasmine Stevenson; grandparents, Kathy Commander, Debbie Valerio and Jimmy Valerio; aunts, Lisa Ledford, Faith Ledford, Donna Levine, Brandy Commander, Tamara Hundley, Sonia Stokes, Martina Commander, Cheryl Stokes, Linda Stephens, Marie Pettit and Janine Palmerino; uncles, Gary Ahrens, James Commander, Timothy Commander, David Commander, Anthony Stokes, Carlos Levine and Terrance Hundley; great-grandmothers, Lovella Stokes and Annette Hall; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Brandon was my youngest grandchild and was so..... greatly loved by me. I felt as if I gave birth to him because he loved me the same way. Every time I looked into his little eyes all I ever saw was love and attachment to his grandma Kathy. I miss him so much that I recognize it as my permanent thorn in the flesh until Jehovah removes death's sting through the destruction of satan and his hordes. I greatly anticipate the day when brandon's little eyes will engross his loving grandma again but this time eternally. To all my family I beg PLEASE BE THERE!!!##imported-begin##grandma kathy##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, My deepest sympathy for the loss of your young one. You know that our loving heavenly father Jehovah God yearns to bring our dead loved ones back to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Job 14:15, Revelation 21:4) Jesus Christ demonstrated this love when he was on earth. He brought the little girl back to life who had died. Jesus called- "Girl, get up!" How excited her parents were to welcome her back to life. (Luke 8:54-56) In the same way in that promised paradise Jesus will call many young and old from death. May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these thrilling prospects from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

MY

This is for Brandon's mom. You have just a little bit longer, or should I say shorter, and Brandon will be back with you. Just remember that he's in Jehovah's memory right now. What better place could he be. I know it's hard right now but continue to throw your burden and grief on Jehovah and he'll sustain you. Your brothers and Sister are keeping you in their prayers. Although I don't know you personally, we are united in the brotherhood and part of the same spiritual family. My love and warm love goes out to you and your family.

“ Dear Family, please accept my deepest sympathy for your great loss. As a parent, I can only imagine your pain and my prayers are with your family at this most difficult time. Please be assured that Almighty God, Jehovah understands what you are going through and He plans to undo this "sting" caused by the enemy, death. At John 5:28,29 we're given a promise that we will see our dear loved ones who are just sleeping; awaiting a resurrection. The scripture reads: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out....." How comforting this promise is for all of us who has ever lost a loved one in death. At Isaiah 26:19 we're told: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." Your tears of sorrow will soon be replaced with tears of joy when this promise is fulfilled according to His promise. May these verses bring you much comfort. Please compare these scriptures to your copy of the bible to see these wonderful truths firsthand.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My heart really goes out to you on the death of this beautiful little boy, Brandon. I truly understand your pain, because I lost ny sweet son 10 years ago, and pain has never left me even though it"s more bearable now. That"s truly the mercy of our loving father who gives us the help we need to cope with our sorrow. Even though I didn"t get to meet the sweet little guy, I hope to see him in the ressurction along with my son, and maybe one day we can all sit down and eat togheter. I"m looking forward to it. May Jehovah envelope you in his love in the days and months ahead, and may his word fondle your soul. Peace be with your family until we all unite in Jehovah"s paeceful new world.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ today is 9-28-06 I woke up with my little sweetheart on my mind and I just started to think how lovely little babies are made for the joy of their grandmas and about how they are never to be completely away from granma and I could see his trusting little smiling face looking up at me with such adoration. It's such a wonderful thought to know that Jehovah knows exactly what I feel and to know that He is anxiously awaiting the time when He will bring my sweatie pie back to me and make my heart complete again!###imported-begin###grandma kathy###imported-end##

“ just a brief note to my family to say that I have not forgotten about any of you or about my sweet little baby "B". I hope you all are holding up well. Just don't forget to keep reading your bible daily and pray that you will make it to Brandon's resurrection. he'll need to see your smiling and crying faces at seeing him again. and he will also need some tender loving care. I can only give grandma's love. I can't give the love of each one of you who loved him so much. you must be there for that. PLEASE BE THERE!!! you all know what Jehovah has promised, this I know because I taught it to you personally. Paradise and Brandon will be so much better with you all there. Love you! be strong! “ just an acknowledgement to family and friends that I'm still here, that not one day goes by that I don't feel the love and anticipation to see our sweet little "B" again- in paradise, where there will be no more of this madness that we face each day that comes from places we expect and also those places we don't expect it to come from. It's all good though because Jehovah says if He is for you - who can be against you. It's Jehovah who fights the battles for us daily. Hang in there. much love, kc###imported-begin##grandma kathy###imported-end##

“ just starting out a day of witnessing and thought that I would first make another plea to my and to brandon's family and friends to reach out and learn of the wonderful things that Jehovah has in store for those who will stop everyday activities long enough to hear and obey what He expects from those who would like to be there for brandon when he is resurrected to a paradise earth, full of love and caring. who would not desire such a situation, considering all the crime and violence that we live with each day of our lives. imagine, a world where, even our children can walk around outside and play without our ever having to worry about someone doing them harm. understand that Jehovah, the creator of man and of every good thing, has promised it and His own word says that He can't lie. my e-mail address is: commander9195@comcast.com please contact me so that we can discuss these and many other of promises of God more fully.###imported-begin##grandma kathy###imported-end##

“ just wanted to acknowledge the joy of joys that i am experiencing every day because of james, my son, hearing my plea for his life. not only did he hear but he is also helping his wife and their two sons, janiel and micah to hear also. i am so grateful to jehovah for hearing my cries for help in aiding my family and friends to be there for our dear baby. i'm physically sick but so full of zeal that i am bursting at the seems to be better and to spend my entire life doing what i love to do most - that being helping others to know the wonderful and loving God that i serve - Jehovah. to the rest of my family and friends i say please come with us and make brandon's heart glad to see that he has such a large family who loves him so much. what can compare to that in this old system so full of everything vile and evil. although i'm growing physically older and weaker, the joy from just one of my children and his family coming to serve Jehovah fills me up and makes me stronger so that my weakness fades away and is replaced by the need to help save even more lives by the words of my witnessing. come with me! there is no better place to be than paradise. i love all my babies and their babies and all my family and friends!!! i can be contacted at Kcommander919@comcast.net##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Brandon, may our loving father, Jehovah continue to comfort you, and strengthen you to keep in striving in his service until the wonderful day when you are reunited with Brandon. To grandma Kathy, I am so very happy that Jehovah sent you another little grandson to love. What a loving God we serve. And actually the same thing happened to me. When I lost my son Freddy 10 years ago, my daughter had a little boy the same year even though she thought she could never have childre. I truly identify with what you said earlier too; that noone can take the place of Brandon, or my son Freddy, but the new grandsons can make a new place ; their own place in our hearts. Stay strong in the faith my dear spiritual sister, as we await the glorious day of the ressurection. O how we will rejoice.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
