

Brawley Evans Jr.

September 13, 1953 - April 13, 2018

Brawley Evans Jr. (known by most as Jr.) was born September 13, 1953 in Chester, South Carolina. He was the first born of seven children to the late Brawley and Lizzie Bea Evans. Brawley moved to Turner's Station with two of his siblings and parents at the age of 3 years old. Brawley attended Baltimore County Schools. He graduated from Dundalk Senior High School in 1972.

Later in life Brawley gave his life to Christ. He joined Solid Rock Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Jeffery D. Sanders Sr. Brawley became an ordained Deacon October 22, 2004. He took his position in the church very seriously. He loved the word of God and he studied daily so he could live by God's Word. Brawley participated in Bible Studies and Sunday School. Brawley also sang on the choir.

Brawley lived life to the fullest, always loving and caring for others. Brawley took on the role or responsibility to be his cousin Kim's protector after her father went to Heaven. Once Jr.

S father died which was Kim's Godfather. He promised his father he would take care of her. Brawley held on to his promise because that was the kind of person he was. Brawley made numerous friends wherever he went. He will be missed by all.

Jr. loved playing cards (Spades, Pinochle, Bid Wiz and Tonk) Brawley also loved playing softball. He belonged on several teams. (Mud City, Other side of Town which was Day Village League) Bowling was his passion. He was also on several leagues. This is how he met his beautiful loving wife Bernadette. In addition he loved riding his Harley Davidson Motorcycle. He joined the Biker Club the Hard Riders of Baltimore.

Brawley was employed with the Baltimore Gas & Electric for a short time then he went to work for Baltimore City, Street Lighting where he retired from in October of 2014.
