“ I only had the honor of knowing Brea for a short time through work in Marietta. From the first day that she came to work she showered everyone with her beautiful smile and warmth. She was gracious, and friendly and had a pure spirit that shown through to everyone that she met.

I am so sorry for your loss, you shared a bright light with us all and though she is gone, she will never be forgotten. God Bless You.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Brea's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All" the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

I hope these words serve as encouragement. Remain loyal and keep serving God; you will see Brea again!

To the Family of Brea Tijuana Reva Wallace;

In light of the many situations that will occur in all our lives I doubt very seriously of any situation that traumatize, overwhelm and paralyze our deepest emotions and our frame of mind more than death. Death stirs up the type of emotions no human would want to experience ever let alone repeatedly as many families have had to endure in the past to this current time. That is why it is a true fact when God's word say death is our enemy, (1Cor 15:26). Jehovah God says this because he never purpose for man to live a limited length of time. That is why by means of His son Jesus and his ransom he paid is making it possible for Jehovah God's original purpose to be reinstated that man will have the opportunity to live forever on a paradise earth. So no matter what the cause of this loss just know that according to Rev 21:4 death and the things that cause pain and sorry will be no more. Is 25:8 states that death will be swallowed up and those whose lives have been loss to death will wake up from the ground (Daniel 12:2) because Jesus will resurrect all those in the memorial tombs.(John 5:28-29) Though Brea will be deeply missed for now, her condition is temporary. Right now she resides in Jehovah God's memory and when the appointed time come she will be one of those who will be awoken by Jesus to reside among family and friends in the near future on a paradise earth. Please stay strong and trust in Jehovah God and Christ because one of many things that we can be sure of that is true and that is it is impossible for God to lie. (Heb 6:18). Yes, Is 55:11 states not one word will return to Jehovah without results. So this will happen. Keep trusting in your hope to see Brea again with endurance. (Rom 8:24). So may the God of comfort keep you in His love as you endure this hard and trying time.
