“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope in the Bible from Jehovah God and Jesus Christ. (Psalm 83:18 and John 17:3)##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Fulwood-Jones Family: I wish to express my condolence for the loss of your love one. During times like these, hearts are filled with grief and pain. However, please find comfort in Jehovah God's promise found in the Bible at Revelation chapter 21, verse 4. It reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God comfort you during these difficult times.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ Losing a dear loved one in death is the hardest thing we go through in life, but it was never God's purpose for us to die in the first place. Jehovah God's desire is for mankind to live forever in peace and happiness. Even though Adam brought sin and death upon us, God intends to see that his purpose is fulfilled. 1st Cor 15:22 promises: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. So Christ Jesus is the way to salvation for all of us, and if we put our faith in him we will one day live forever and see our loved ones come back to life again. Jesus himself said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Keep your eyes fixed on God's promises, follow his direction, trust in him with all your hearts, do his will, and one day you will see Brenda again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
