

Brenda Burnette

May 24, 1964 - April 25, 2021

Brenda Dale Burnette daughter of Percy Coney and Green Burnette. She was born on May 24, 1964 at Francis Scott Key hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. As the fourth youngest of seven children she became known as Bones. Brenda received her education in Baltimore City public schools. She had several housekeeping jobs but also obtained her GNA certification. Despite never marrying she loved Troy King and from that union came one daughter Tori King.

You could never stop Bones from being who she was. Her love of music ranged from "I Want To Thank You Heavenly Father" to "I'm On A World Tour With Mr. Malcolm McLaren". One of her favorite sayings was M-A-N-I-P-U-L-A-T-O-R manipulator. Let's not forget her love of playing solitaire by hand and family feud.

After a lingering illness Brenda departed from this life loved by family and friends on April 25, 2021.

Brenda is preceded in death by her brother Benjamin Montgomery. To cherish her memory she leaves children Tori King and stepson Shawn Gille and a loved one Troy King. Mother Percy Coney, sisters Carolyn Jeffries, Genise Coney, Margaret Ellis, Francis Downing and brother Frederick Montgomery. a host of nephews, nieces great nephews, great nieces, one great great nephew, uncles, aunts and cousins. AS well as lots of friends who loved her dearly. Brenda had a gentle spirit with a kind and caring heart. She loved her family very much and we loved her. Always laughing and joking Bones was the life of the party. Brenda was a beautiful daughter, mother and sister.
