

Brenda Cofield

November 25, 1940 - September 14, 2014

BRENDA COLFIELD was born on November 25, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the daughter of Edward Gregory and Bernice Glenn. God through His infinite wisdom called Brenda to her resting place in Glory on September 14, 2014.

Brenda was educated in the public schools of Baltimore, Md. She graduated from Douglass High School in 1958. Brenda later attended the Community College of Baltimore City. Brenda accepted Christ at an early age, where she attended the Morning Star Baptist Church. Brenda later united with the Ebenezer Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Clarence E. Poole. She attended faithfully until her health failed. Brenda was also a member of the Possibility Place Christian Missionary under the leadership of the Rev. Minnie Washington. Brenda was employed by the Baltimore City Public Schools for 30 years. She served as a parent liaison worker, bridging the gap between school and home.

Brenda also served as a foster parent for over 100 girls. She was a loving and dedicated foster mother. Many of the girls kept in touch with her even after leaving her care. She received many certificates and awards for her work with the Baltimore City Department of Social Services.

Brenda spent her later years at several nursing facilities. Her final residence was the Ellicott City rehabilitation center. Brenda never complained during her lengthy illness. She always kept a bright outlook, and was an inspiration to other residents and visitors. Brenda kept her faith and never doubted God's love for her.

Brenda leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Daryl Easter (wife Rita Easter); two devoted daughters, Robin L. Eater and Renee Greene (husband Anthony Greene); seven grandchildren, Daryl Jr., Tierra (deceased), Tiacha, Taylor, Aalayah, Amber and Aryn; her companion, Robert Easter (deceased); step-father, Donald Cox; two brothers, Calvin Freeman (Lethia) and Earl Glenn (Barbara); two sisters, Beverly Gross (Al) and Denise Briscoe (James); aunt, Shirley Filmore; many cousins, nieces, nephews, devoted friends Mittie McPhaul, Norma Cross and Arlene Abrahms; one god daughter, Allison McPhaul and a host of other relatives and friends.
