“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the Campbell family, I offer my most heartfelt condolences. Death is truly an enemy to all families, and we all long for relief from this heartache and sorrow. Noone should have to experience such pain, because God never wanted this for his earthly children. His purpose was for us to live eternally in peace and happiness on a paradise earth. That is why he put Adam, whom he formed from the dust in the Garden of Eden. One day his glorious purpose will be realized when he ressurects all who have died in his memory, back to life. I would like to share with you from the bible Jehovah"s glorious purpose, and how you can benefit from it. So please contact me if you would like to. May you be comforted by your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection at Acts 24:15, "...there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous." Yes, Almighty God promises to remove our enemy death at 1 Cor 15:26. I hope this brings comfort to family.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ To the Campbell Family, Please except this message as condolences to the family. Your Mom was a very special person to all of you. The bible gives hope os a resurrection. John 5:28-29 tels of that hope. It lets us know th "memorial tombs will be open". Finding comfort in this difficult time is hard. Psalms 55:22 tells us to "throw your burden upon Jehovah and he will substain". Always look to jehovah the "hearer of prayers" for comfort He and Only He can give you comfort in stressful times such as death. Please use the scriptures in your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Phyllis Duvall##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
