

Brenda Amanda Davis

July 12, 1952 - May 23, 2014

Our beloved Brenda Amanda Davis, 61, of Richmond, Virginia departed this life on May 23, 2014. Left to cherish her loving memory: mother, Estelle Patrick; two sisters, Joann Bolling and Queen Thomas; three brothers, Willie, Calvin, and Joseph Sr. Patrick; a host of nieces and nephews, Clayton Bolling Jr., Nicole Bolling, Brenda Brown, Marie Patrick, Raquel Patrick; and four in which she lovingly referred to as her children, Joseph Patrick Jr., Shadesha McShine, Jamarcus McShine, and Kendall Thomas; devoted aunt, Eunice Burrow; extended family and lifelong friends, James Harvey, Renae Davis and many others.

Whether you knew her as “Big Bass Brenda” (true story), Mom, Dad, Sister, Aunt, Soul mate- Friend, you became or were made keenly aware, that Brenda Davis meant many things, to many different people. Born in 1952, July 12th, Brenda Davis came into this world, in the same manner that she would eventually leave, which is to say, in-charge.

Although she was the 4th child to be welcomed into the home of Estelle Patrick (Mother), Brenda Davis quickly became, and remained, the Matriarch, often adopting the principles of “By any means necessary”, when it came to protecting her family...one does not obtain the title of ‘The Big Boss’ any other way.

Though she never had any children of her own, she poured her time, heart and soul into caring for not only her nieces and nephews, who in some cases were products of single parent homes, but also other youth, whose situations she sought to improve.

It was often a running joke that Aunt Brenda (who was an avid basketball fan) had turned her back on her beloved Detroit Pistons, as she would regularly root or seemingly favor whichever team was good that season. But she would always respond, "I'm still a Detroit fan-Bad Boys, they will always be my heart".

We will never speak again, our time, as all things will, have come to end. For the love, wisdom, inspiration, opportunity and devotion in which she selflessly gave to us all, no matter her individual circumstance, let us be sure that she will forever remain in ours.

Love you Big B.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

So sorry to lose such a loving and caring lady from this earth. This leaves many of us very sad for a long time. May those that loved her keep her special memories in their heart forever. You may now rest. You will definitely be missed. Love you. Thanks for the positive example you gave to me daily. I will forever be grateful and humble. Miss you much. Family be strong. Brenda was so kind and welcoming to my family in Cullenwood...especially when we needed it the most. God Bless her good soul. Its differcult trying accept the reality that you're gone and that we wont hear your voice again and we wont see your smile. You will forever be miss. “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
