“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this difficult time, may all find comfort in the wonderful hope expressed at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

A Robinson - July 13, 2011 at 11:05 AM

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. May the God of Peace, Jehovah, help to ease your grief and always be beside you as you continue on through life.

Hoping it helps to know that others care and share your loss.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

With Deepest Sympathy

Mary Johnson - July 09, 2011 at 10:20 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
