She was raised on Dolphin Street in downtown Baltimore. As a teenager, she was very passionate about her hair and enjoyed doing her family's hair.

She received her education at Carver Vocational Technical High School where she studied Cosmetology. After her schooling, she later moved to New York to pursue her career. While in New York, she met a Jewish family and became a Nanny for their children, and on the side she did hair. During her stay in New York, she met a wonderful man and married Jose Luis Flores and had a beautiful daughter named Rome. Brenda was a very loving woman. She liked flowers, perfume, the color violet, and coffee. She also liked pastries, spinach quiche, cheesecake, toast, peppermint candy, and chewing gum. She had a great sense of humor and loved to tell jokes. She also liked to put on makeup and style hair. Some of her hobbies were shopping, cooking, cleaning and listening to talk shows on the
