

Brenda G. Pinkney

April 28, 1949 - August 14, 2002

Brenda G. Dawson-Pinkney, daughter of Daisy and the late John L. Dawson was born on April 28, 1949 and departed this life on August 14, 2002 after a brief illness, at her home. Brenda received Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized at the Good Shepherd Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Dr. Robert Hunt. She also frequented the services at the Friendship Baptist Church under the direction of Rev. William McCoy. Brenda received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Furthering her education, she received a degree in Geriatric Nursing as well as Real Estate. However, Brenda was a dedicated worker at the General Motors Corporation for more than twenty-nine years. Brenda was a well-liked person and she lived life to the fullest. She especially enjoyed shopping, traveling and dancing. On February 16, 2002, Brenda married her best friend, Paul Pinkney. Brenda will surely be missed by all that knew and loved her. She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband, Paul; loving daughter, Sherril; two grandchildren, Sharrina and Marvin; godson, Myrus Joynes; loving mother, Daisy; one brother, John (wife Joyce); sisters, Yvonne, Theresa and Michele; four uncles, seven aunts, three nieces, six nephews; two stepsons, Sgt. Paul K. Pinkney and Mark Pinkney; two stepdaughters, Lorraine Johnson and Vanessa Pinkney; eight step-grandchildren; mothers-in-law, Dora L. Holland and Helen Pinkney; two daughters-in-law, Sybyl and Cynthia; one son-in-law, Bernard Johnson; and four sisters-in-law; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
