

Brenda L. Haywood

June 29, 1942 - November 18, 2016

Brenda Lois Haywood, the daughter of the late Dorethea Haywood Foster and Edward Haywood, departed this earthly life on Friday, November 18, 2016 after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 29, 1942. She attended and graduated from Frederick High School. In 1954 she graduated from Morgan State College which is now Morgan State University.

For 33 years, she was employed by the Department of Parole and Probation in the Division of Alimony and Support. She was a dedicated and conscientious agent who helped her clients to the best of her ability. After retirement the camaraderie that Brenda, her supervisors, and former co-worker shared continued to the present. Occasionally they traveled and cruised together.

Brenda accepted Christ at an early age where she attended Douglas Memorial Community Church followed by her long-term membership at New Shiloh Baptist Church, under the leadership of Dr. Harold A. Carter, Sr. She was a faithful member of The Comfort Choir. Her favorite scriptures included Proverbs 3:5-6, Psalm 100, and Psalm 23. Her spiritual journey also included discussion of the Bible with her mother and sister.

Possessing a sense of humor, one of Brenda's favorite sayings was "I never met a stranger." She enjoyed socializing, watching court, drama, crime stories, and reading romance novels. Brenda also enjoyed going to restaurants with family and friends.

She leaves to mourn in her memory: her beloved sister, Linda Bryant (Douglas); her brother, George Haywood (Bertha); her nephews, Quinton Bryant (Melissa); Leon Bryant III (LaTarsha); great nieces, Amanda McCain, Quinn Bryant, Leon Bryant IV and Jordyn Bryant; special nephews, Minister Joe Blanding (Tracey) and Anthony Harris; and a host of other relatives and friends.
