

Brenda J. Richardson

April 26, 1950 - February 20, 2007

Brenda Joyce Shipman, daughter of the late Delores and Roosevelt Shipman II, was born April 26, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the second born of six children, two of which, Maurice Shipman, and Jacqueline Shipman, preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her niece Dana Shipman. She departed this life on February 20, 2007 after a very lengthy illness. She received her diploma from Western High School in Baltimore, and furthered her education at Coppin State College, with plans of becoming a successful accountant. It was around this time that she was blessed with her first child Patrick. Several years later she was introduced to Thomas Richardson on a blind date arranged by her sister Jackie, her friend Joyce, and his brother James. They were married a few years later on April 20, 1984 and from this union she was blessed with her second child Michelle. She always tried to stay in good spirits, even in the face of illness. She was extremely creative, always partaking in crafts, and creating some of her own very memorable cards and collages. She was truly a caring and resilient woman, who will be deeply missed and never forgotten. She leaves to mourn: her devoted husband, Thomas; son, Patrick; daughter, Michelle; three brothers, Gregory, Roosevelt, and Arnold; three sisters-in-law, Barbara, Paulette, and Shiela; two nieces, Robin, and Felica; two nephews, Gregory Jr. and Ronald; and a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Brenda J. Richardson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello to the Richardson's ! We send you condolences to you all. Brenda will be miss by her family and friends. Losing a dear one hurts . The help will come from our creator of all things very soon. Jesus said at John 11:22-44 that his friend Lazarus was coming back to life and he did, so tomany that have die , we can look forward to seeing them to every soon. May hope keep you going. My sympathy. lillian .##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is truly a heartbreaking situation for the family left behind. It's so hard to believe that our loved one is really gone. I know, because many of my family have died, including my only son. What helps me to cope is the sure hope of the ressurection. The Apostle Paul put faith in that promise. At Acts 24,15 he said, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of the righteous and the unrighteous. One day Brenda will be brought back to life. Jesus will call, and John 5,28,29 says; All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. May those wonderful promises from Jehovah God comfort you, as well as your precious memories of happier days.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM