

Brenda Lenora Johnson

December 2, 1941 - April 26, 2019

Brenda Johnson was a pillar of strength. She was born on December 2, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Elwood Johnson, Sr. and Cleo Booth Johnson. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. After helping to rear her siblings she had four children of her own - Andre, Linda, Jewel, and Ira. For many years she worked for Park Sausage as a supervisor. After retiring, she began working for Baltimore City Public School System from where she also retired.

She dedicated her life to Jehovah on March 13, 1983 and she gained many friends. She remained faithful to Jehovah until the end. She had a love for cooking for family and friends. She really loved shopping which was her favorite pastime. She also loved to wear bright colors. She was a true Baltimorean, eating crabs and shrimp any chance she got. She had to have her lipstick (orange) ready and nails always painted even when she was feeling bad. She fought a long fight with her head held high.

More than anything she loved being with family and friends. She was loved by many. She had a smile that would light up the room especially when her grandchildren would come to visit.

She leaves to cherish her memory one son, Andre Robinson; two daughters, Linda Pulliam and Jewel Logan (Jonathan); four grandchildren, Donte aka Kelly Johnson (Yasmin), Jasmin Logan, Ciara VanArsdale (Charles), and Jonathan Logan; six great grandchildren, Alani, Jayla, Jade, Joey, Camren, and Marquis; three brothers, Elwood Johnson (Emily), Jerome aka Jerry

Booth, and Michael Johnson; two sisters, Gloria Balance and Virginia aka Louise Mobley (Wyman). She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her son, Ira; her siblings, Darryl, Paul, Richard, Bill, Vivian aka Poopie, and Phyllis; and her best friend Joyce Stokes.
