

Brenda Johnson

October 30, 1942 - November 19, 2022

Brenda Joyce Johnson was born to the late Melvin Price and Helen Driver on October 30, 1947, in Baltimore, Maryland. After a long illness, she was called from labor to reward on November 19, 2022.

After the union of Benjamin and Helen Scott Brenda was reared by her stepfather from youth to become the strong independent woman that she has become today. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School Systems and graduated from Venable Senior High School. She was employed at Stella Maris as a certified nursing assistant.

Brenda was united in holy matrimony to Alfred Johnson, Sr. and from that union were three children, Alfred Jr. Teresa, and Kevin. She loved and adored her children, grandchildren, and family.

Brenda accepted Christ at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church at an early age. She was dedicated to reading the word of God and studying to show herself approved to God. Brenda carried the word of God in her heart, and she interceded on behalf of the unsaved. She held bible study in her home and taught the neighborhood children the word of God. May Brenda's work set an example for true believers in Christ.

Brenda had a great fondness for her family. She enjoyed attending

Celebrations and eating good food. She enjoyed dancing, going to the adult daycare, playing bingo. Brenda had a special way of conveying her feelings.

Brenda leaves to cherish her memory her children, Alfred Johnson, Teresa Johnson, and Kevin Johnson, and her grandchildren, Shana Johnson, Jamerio Guy six sisters, Virginia Hardy, Ida Scott (William), Wanda Walker, Teresa Wilson, Lakeiena Freeman (Darren), and Michelle Price. Four brother, Wayne Scott, Anthony Scott, Melvin Price Jr. and James Graham-Scott. The family that preceded her in death are her parents Helen Scott and Melvin Price, and her stepfather Benjamin Scott. She had two brother, Benjamin Scott Jr. and Ghais Sabree. Her sisters, Carolyn Price, Gwendolyn Scott, Barbara Johnson, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends loved her dearly.
