

Brenda Joyce Johnson

April 2, 1951 - June 24, 2003

Brenda Joyce Johnson, daughter of Dorothy Mae (deceased) and Charles Paine Walker was born on April 2, 1951, in McDowell, West Virginia, and was called home to rest on June 24, 2003. She was the oldest of nine children. Soon after, the family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where Brenda was educated in the Baltimore City Public School Systems. Brenda and Calvin Johnson, Jr. were joined in marriage, out of this union were three children. They were divorced in 1993. Brenda was one who possessed many talents. She was known for her tailoring skills and for being an excellent cook. She was a loving mother and grandmother, aunt and sister. Her grandchildren knew her as "Gammie", the rest of the family as "Aunt Ben." She will be remembered for holidays and summers of fun at her home and the love that came along with them. She will be sorely missed. Brenda gave her life to Christ and was baptized in the Christian faith. She was a member of New Rehoboth Baptist Church. She leaves to cherish her memory: her father, Charles Walker; former husband, Calvin Johnson, Jr.; one daughter, Stephanie; two sons, Larry and Anthony; one daughter-in-law, Marlo Johnson; six grandchildren, Tanya, Chelsea Knight, India, Anthony Jr., Lawrence and Kyron; three sisters, Veronica, Anna Easley, and Vera Jones of Virginia; four brothers, Charles, Richard, Kevin, and Sherman; two brothers-in-law, Phillip Easley and Chester Jones of Virginia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Brenda Joyce Johnson

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Brenda Joyce Johnson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM