

Brenda Joyce Whiting

August 28, 1954 - November 16, 2005

BRENDA J. WHITING, a gift from God and daughter of Mildred and the late Edgar Whiting, was born on August 28, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. Suddenly, on Wednesday, November 16, 2005, Brenda was called from this life to be with the Lord. Brenda was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Edmondson High School in 1971. She furthered her education attending Essex Community College. Brenda became employed at Carefirst Blue Cross/Blue Shield on November 12, 1979 and advanced throughout the company for twenty-six years, until her demise. Brenda was caring, compassionate and dedicated to all of her endeavors. She was a loving and hard-working mother, daughter, sister and friend and will be greatly missed. The youngest of four siblings (a brother, William Whiting preceded her in death), Brenda had the ability to say what she meant and mean what she said, with a sense of humor that would keep everyone in stitches and on their toes. She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Tiffani; mother, Mildred Whiting; two sisters, Patricia Briscoe and Barbara Denton; godson, Kamian; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My prayers are with each and everyone of you at this time. Brenda is forever in my heart. I always told Brenda that God gave her to me as my test. Brenda's witty ways were often what made my days. I will miss her terribly, but God never ever makes mistakes. Again, my prayers and condolences to her family and friends.##imported-begin##Ann Johnson##imported-end##

“ My heart and prayers go out to the family, especially her daughter and mother. Brenda was one of the most caring individuals I have had the honor of calling a friend. No matter what the situation was, good or bad, she genuinely cared. There are many days that she carried my troubles and sadnesses along with me, and many more days that her wonderful spirit made us laugh so hard we were in tears. She will be deeply missed and never forgotten.##imported-begin##Karen Bentz##imported-end##
