

Brenda L. Ragin

September 28, 1960 - March 13, 2010

BRENDA LEE ANTHONY RAGIN was born in Baltimore, Maryland September 28, 1960 to Sarah Eva Jones and the late Lee Curtis Jones. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked for Rouse and Company for over ten years as a dedicated employee, taking care of the grounds at Baltimore City's Inner Harbor. Brenda dedicated her life to Jehovah in the year 2008 and was a faithful proclaimer-spreading the good news up until her death. She loved to shop and dance... those were just two of her favorite pastimes. We will miss her very much and look forward to welcoming her back in God's promised Paradise. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Sarah E. Jones; her sisters, Joe Ann Anthony, Maxine Anthony and Shirley Jones; three nieces, Eleisha C. Coit, Felicia C. Coit, and Shannon Jones, a.k.a. Daughter; her nephew, Willie C. Coit, Jr.; granddaughter, Tiasha Ragin; great-nephew, Elijah C. Coit; great-niece, Cailin C. C. Coit; and a host of great-nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins and friend.

“ There's nothing like family! U will always be my favorite cousin from Aunt Sarah. I still remember the last time we were together, u showed me nothing but independence. Even though u are eight years older, u allowed me to lead. It/I actually felt good because u trusted me. That was just your character, being independent. No more pain & suffering. I will always remember the lessons in life that u taught me, our last hug, our last conversation. Thanks, I will not forget u!!! I will always love u.##imported-begin##Lois (Anthony) Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time . Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that he will by means of his son Jesus, bring our enemy 'to nothing'. (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
