

Brenda Lea

June 12, 1948 - June 20, 2008

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Brenda Lea

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I send my condolences to the family at this most difficult time. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, and we all long for an end to sickness and death. One day that desire will be fulfilled, because it was never God's purpose for people to grow old, get sick, and die. He created Adam and Eve with the prospect of good health, perfect life, and an eternity of happiness. But sadly, they did not appreciate all that God had done for them so they lost out on life for themselves and us, their offspring. Yet Jehovah's purpose has not changed. He still purposes to grant eternal life to people with perfect health and perfection. But first they must meet his requirements which are not burdensome, because he never puts more on us that we can bear. One day, all obedient children of God will see their loved ones come to life again in the promised resurrection of the dead. Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Yes all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May your family find much hope and strength from the bible's promises. John 5:28,29##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy and offer you an opportunity to experience the same source of comfort that I have experienced during times like these. This comfort is found in God's word, the Bible. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it tells us that Jehovah is, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations." It also describes the wonderful resurrection hope that all can benefit from. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 and contact me if you would like to discuss how you can benefit from this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM