

Brenda M. Curry

September 20, 1946 - May 17, 2004

Brenda Marie Smith Curry, daughter of the late Robert and Ruth Smith, was born on September 20, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland, the third child in a family of eight children. She departed this life suddenly on May 17, 2004. Brenda received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar High School, the class of 1964. She then completed two years of nursing at the Baltimore City Hospital School of Nursing and went on to pursue a career as a licensed practical nurse. She was a dedicated employee at both the Johns Hopkins and the University Hospitals until her retirement in 2002. She was wed to Ralph Vincent Curry Sr. and from this union they had one loving and devoted son, Ralph Vincent Curry Jr. Brenda was a quiet yet fun loving person who treasured her roles as mother and as one who helped people to heal. She enjoyed spending time with her family, listening to music and celebrating her black culture. The life long friends she made growing up in Somerset Projects will especially miss her. She leaves to mourn: her son, Ralph Vincent Curry Jr.; three sisters, Marion Smith, Yvonne Smith and Adrian Smith; two brothers, Randolph Smith and Andrew Smith; daughter-in-law, Carol; aunt, Lillian Stafford; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ *I'd like to express my deepest sympathy to you and your family. It's comforting to know that Almighty God is always there to give us the needed strength to endure. He promises at Psalms 55:22 that "...he himself will sustain you..." Remember, God cares for you and will help you in your time of need. “ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
