“ I would like to extend my sympathy to the family for the loss of your beloved one. We have the promise from God's Word, the Bible at Revelation 21:3,4 that sickness and death will be no more. May the family also find comfort in the Scriptures at 1 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Jessie McIver##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Brenda Mae Wheeler. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
