

Brenda Marie Davis

March 30, 1947 - January 29, 2007

Brenda Marie Davis, daughter of the late “Karrie” B. and William J. Addison, Sr., was born March 30, 1947, in Washington, DC. On January 29, 2007, she called to glory where she found everlasting peace with our heavenly Father. Brenda received her education as well as her certificate of completion from the Baltimore City Public School System. Brenda was wed in matrimony for 43 years to her childhood sweetheart, Edward H. Davis, III. From this union two sons were born. She was a dedicated employee of the Social Security Administration for over 30 years, after which, Brenda took early retirement. Brenda accepted Christ at a very early age. She had a very extensive church family. Brenda was a member of Eastern United Methodist Church and also attended Saint Francis and finally, Saint Joseph, F.W.B.C. Brenda was very artistic, she loved to sing, cook, dance, and tell others about the goodness of God. Brenda also loved to surround herself with family and friends, and oh how she loved her grand’s. Due to a lengthy illness, Brenda leaves to cherish in memories: her loving husband, Edward Davis, III... (see family list, right), a host of nieces, nephews, other relative and friends. Brenda would never let you leave, hang-up, or say goodbye before she told you, “I love you”, and you would always hear her say, “Keep my babies in prayer”.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.###imported-begin###Senita Swann###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches that our "enemy death" will one day be "be destroyed".(See First Corinthians 15:26) There is much hope for our loved ones who have been taken by death. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us- "There is going to be a resurrection." We learn that this resurrection will take place in a new world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(See Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 65:17) May you and your family receive much comfort and strength in the days ahead as you think on these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear family and friends of Mrs. Brenda, please accept my heartfelt condolence. I can imagine the pain you are feeling, because I too have lost loved ones, and it's the most hurting feeling in the world. We wonder, why did this have to happen to my family. Unfortunately, death is something we can't change, but Almighty God can do away with death, and he has promised in his word to do so in the very near future. Isaiah 33:24 says that one day, "No resident will say, "I AM SICK'. Then Isaiah 25:8 says, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces," because Jehovah himself has spoken it." Imagine a world free of sickness and death. Then Acts 24:15 lets us know that there will be a resurrection. Please find comfort in his word, family, because he never fails to fulfill his promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
