

Brenda Ina Miller

February 15, 1942 - February 1, 2011

BRENDA INA MILLER, daughter of the late James Arthur Hope, Sr. and the late Gladys Hope, was born on February 15, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called her to entered into eternal rest on February 1, 2011.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Brenda was beyond a homemaker, she was a mother, a grandmother and a friend to everyone. She was intelligent and clever. She loved to watch her old movies, cook and do crossword puzzles. She was both humble and humorous. She was a comedian. She was a survivor. She was a mother among mothers. She was a lot of things to a lot of people, but there was one thing she wasn't. She was never selfish. She gave generously to her family, friends and strangers, both LASTING MEMORIES and the material things of things of this world. She also gave us great foods, great gift, and great laugh's, but most of all, she gave herself. The true measure of love is your willingness to sacrifice her life for many.

It was Jesus who said, "God works though people." Anyone who knew her can say without hesitation, it is through her that God did some of His best work.

Brenda was a member of New Shiloh Baptist Church where the pastor is Harold A. carter.

She was preceded in death by five sisters Doris, Shirley, Mildred, Florine and Mabel; two brothers, Nathaniel and Arthur; daughter, Gladys; and grandson, William (Markey).

She leaves to cherish her memory; three daughters, Vonita, Maureen (Kim) and Sharon (April); two sons, Arthur (Artay) and Michael (Mike); two daughters-in-law, Kennethia and Linda; two son-in-law, Darryl and Kenneth (Kenny); twenty-three grandchildren, twenty-seven great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchildren; four brothers, Reginald (Reggie), Paul, Ronald and William; and a host of other relatives and friends.
