

Brenda Yvonne Stubbs

February 1, 1945 - October 7, 2018

“The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart: the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.” (Isaiah 57:1-2)

Brenda Yvonne Stubbs was born February 1, 1945, in West Point, Virginia, the fifth child to the late Hazel and Leon Stubbs. She was lovingly reared in the West Point area. Brenda made her peaceful transition into the arms of the Lord to have eternal rest on Sunday, October 7, 2018. She was preceded in death by her sister, Grace Hollis and brother, Leon Stubbs.

She attended Central High School in King and Queen, Virginia. Brenda was baptized at Mt. Nebo Baptist Church at an early age and later joined First Union Baptist Church (Southside Richmond) where she sung in the choir - a spiritual lady of grace and elegance that loved her Heavenly Father.

She was formally employed by the State of Virginia in the Department of Rehabilitative Services. After working more than thirty years as a dedicated worker, she retired in 2010.

In 2010, she married Franklin Tompkins in Richmond, Virginia, where they resided in the East End for the last eight years.

Brenda was a treasured wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend, that had a kind heart and welcoming spirit. She had an overflowing of love for her family and friends. Besides being the youngest sibling, she handled all of the family business and was a caretaker for her siblings. Brenda adored her family and made sure that she spent a lot of time with them. They were the extension of her heartbeat. She was loved by many and will be missed.

Left to cherish fond memories: loving and caring husband of eight years, Franklin Tompkins; devoted daughter, Catherine Lewis (Kilder); two adored grandsons, Caleb and Kaden Toussaint; step-children, Glenn Tompkins (Sharon), Beverly Tompkins, Tina Tompkins, Tyrone Tompkins and Marilyn Patterson; many step-grandchildren; adored sister, Geraldine S. Moore; brother, Franklin Stubbs; devoted niece, Tonya Hockaday (Tony); two devoted friends, Mary Broaddus and Ellen Hutchinson; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Brenda was like a mother to me. My heart is missing a true friend. We had lunch this summer and it was so wonderful to catch up and see “Mary” as I called her. She looked perfect and so beautiful. To all of her family...in time may grace fill the empty space.

“ I am so very sorry to hear this news. The last time I talked to Miss Brenda was a few weeks ago, I was checking on them after the tornados. She sounded happy and full of life. I believe that if she was suffering she feels no pain now and rest a sure we will see her beautiful face and comforting voice again. Prayers are going out to her family and companion Mr. Frank.
