

Brenda D. Taylor

March 24, 1942 - June 30, 2012

Brenda Delia Taylor, daughter of the late James and Bernice Jackson, was born on March 24, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. She took hold of God's unchanging hand and answered the heavenly call on Saturday, June 30, 2012 after a courageous battle to the end with a terminal illness.

She received her education at Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland and retired from Baltimore City Department of Pupil Transportation where she was employed as a paraprofessional.

Brenda was a devoted wife, nurturing mother and loving grandmother who often bragged about never spanking any of her grandchildren. She loved her job working with disabled children and the children loved her. She faithfully watched Pastor Donte Hickman of Southern Baptist Church every Sunday and referred to him as her pastor. She was known for kind heart, funny sense of humor and great cooking! Her pleasant disposition and gentle spirit will truly be missed.

She married her first and only love, Donald E. Taylor, Sr. on May 28, 1960 and from this union were six children: Veronica, Tamara, Bryant, Kirk, the late Donna Maria and the late Donald Taylor.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Veronica Taylor and Tamara Neal; two sons, Bryant and Kirk Taylor; eleven grandchildren, Corey, Dwayne, Darryl, Derrick, Anthony, Jamari, Bryant Jr., Brittany, Kirk Jr., Christian and Morgan; twelve great-grandchildren; four sisters, Octavia Spriggs, Edwina Imes, Sandra Winder and Joyce Royster; one brother, James Jackson, Jr.; one son-in-law, Freddie Neal; three sisters-in-law, Yvonne Barnes, Linda Carter and Peggy Taylor; five brothers-in-law, Robert, David and Ralph Taylor, Joseph Imes and Larry Winder; four granddaughters-in-law; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Tweetie my prayers are with you and your family, I know it hurts because to lose your mother is a great loss, but when you feel sad and you think that you can't make it through the day. look to God he will lift you up and always remember all the good memories you had with your mom. Remember she is with the Lord now, she has no more sorrows and no more pain, she is free. Now you need to let go and let God. I love you Sis.
