

Brenda K. Thompson

March 18, 1960 - October 13, 2011

On March 18, 1960, Brenda K. Thompson also known as Black was born to Tommie C. Thompson and Leonard Thompson (who preceeded her in death) and departed her life on October 13, 2011.

Brenda received her education at Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School in Baltimore. She worked on an assembly line at Abacus Warehouse.

Brenda was a Diva who loved to party, dance and make people laugh. "Black" made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She spent the couple of years bonding with her family and close friends. Although, limited in some of the things she was able to do, she made it her interest to express her love and concern to those closest to her

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Tommie C. Thompson; her sister , Cynthia Harrison; two brothers, Melvin Harrison, Sr and Wayne Thompson; four daughters, Ebony Saunders, Sherrell Smith, Carla Thompson and Shermira Johnson; three grandchildren, Sheraira Madden, Amani Thompson and Kaleah Madden; two sister-in-law, Bethesda Thompson and Cedelia Harrison; Special friend Marie Ross and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible gives hope that soon our Creator Jehovah God will end all suffering, pain, and death. And we have the hope of being reunited with our loved ones that have passed away. Rev 21:4, John 5:28-29. There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up to indefinitely everlasting life.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
