

Brenda Delores Wilkins

March 9, 1946 - February 11, 2024

BRENDA DELORES WILKINS was born Brenda Dolores Boyd on March 9, 1946 to the late Tillman Boyd and Patty Cherry Boyd.

Brenda received her education from Baltimore City Public Schools, where she graduated from Western High School in 1964. Her scholastic endeavors continued at Morgan State University.

Brenda then met and married Wayne Wilkins Sr. in June of 1965. The union produced a son, Wayne Wilkins Jr.

Brenda began her professional career at Mercantile Bank. Her employment status advanced as she began working for IBM which lasted for over two decades, before concluding at Loyola University. In 1981, Brenda joined First Community Baptist Church, and was an active and enthusiastic member. She served as President of the Usher Board along with a host of many other duties and responsibilities. While in membership at the church, she delighted in traveling with her church family. She often remarked that cruises and trips to Sight and Sound were some of her favorite excursions. In recent years, traveling with her immediate family to places such as Florida, New Hampshire, Alabama and Martha's Vineyard were treasured memories. Due to the small size of her family, she cherished holiday gatherings with her sister.

Most of all, Brenda was a loving and doting grandmother to her one and only granddaughter, Blair. After a lengthy and difficult illness, Brenda was called home to be with the Lord on the morning of February 11, 2024. She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Wayne Wilkins Jr.; daughter-in-law Artis L. Wilkins; granddaughter, Blair E. Wilkins; sister, Cynthia I. Brooks; niece, Erica Brooks; and ex-husband, Wayne Wilkins Sr.; and a host of family and friends
