

Brenda M. Woods

September 22, 1950 - February 10, 2011

Brenda Marie Woods, daughter of the late Martha Harris and Charles Wilkes, was born on September 22, 1959 in Baltimore City. Brenda has one brother Orville walker. On Thursday, February 10, 2011 our beloved Brenda peacefully was called home by our Lord and Savior.

Brenda was saved and baptized at an early age. She received her education in the Baltimore City School System. She attended local community college and became a devoted educator who worked with special needs children for twenty years, touching hearts and making numerous of special friendships along the way. Brenda was a candid speaker with a passionate spirit, infectious smile and loving heart. She was a beacon of light in the community, everybody knew and respected "Miss Brenda."

She served as a second mother to many kids in the neighborhood and she was always willing to aid someone in need. Brenda enjoyed attending church, reading the bible and Psalm 23 & 07 were inspiration to her. She loved shopping, word puzzles, watching the Ravens football games and many 70's television shows, but "Sanford & Son" was her favorite. She had a great love for her grandchildren, colleagues and friends. She loved to see them prosper and be happy.

Brenda leaves to cherish her many glorious memories, two devoted sons,

Gregory Woods Sr. and Dameon Woods, three grandchildren Cierra, Breonna and Gregory Jr. and a daughter-in-law, Antoinette Woods; She had profound love for Bridgette White, Brandon Carroll, Carlyon Smith, Darrin Smith, Avery Winston and Andrea Winston; and a host of devoted and loving cousins and friends.

Brenda , we will truly miss you, but we are comforted by your divine memories. You taught many of us to fight and to never give up “ till the race is won.” You never complained in the face of your illness but rest in peace knowing that you have forever enhanced our lives and our hearts. We who love you will always cherish your memory.
