

Brendan J. Singleton

February 20, 1984 - January 25, 2009

BRENDAN JAMAL SINGLETON was gifted to Matthew Singleton and Vonda Whitaker on February 20, 1989 at 8:51 a.m. at Mercy Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education at Patterson High School in Baltimore, Md. He was a devoted member of the Safe Streets Project. He was recently in the Job Corps of Pennsylvania to study culinary arts and carpentry. Brendan's life always lovingly consisted of his favorite things, such as football (the Raven's biggest fan), sitting around joking or playing a game of Swirls with his mother and brothers, and playing video games with his baby brother Keon. But nothing made him smile like his mother's cooking and his great-grandmother's smothered chicken. Brendan leaves to deeply mourn: his loving mother and stepfather, Vonda and Keith Whitaker; his father, Matthew Singleton and (his stepmother preceded him in death, Mary Singleton); five brothers, Christopher Rhodes Sr., Blake, Shelby and Sheldon Singleton and Keon Whitaker; stepbrother, Antonio Marshall; stepsister, LaShonda Marshall; loving sister-in-law, Charnaka Rhodes; two nephews, Christopher Jr. and Nehemiah Rhodes; two nieces (loves of his life) Kristen and Kiristen Rhodes; adoring great-grandmother, Margaret Roberson; adoring grandmother, Blanche Singleton; loving godmother, Toni Williams; godbrother, Antoine Williams; two godsisters, Monica and Matrese Williams; and last but not least his best friend, mentor, counselor (Safe Streets Project), Tard Carter; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many, friends.

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences for the loss of Brendan. 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our "enemy death" is to be "destroyed". Also, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
