“ Brian, through our talks, through our laughs, through our hurts and our tears, I think now we better understand each other spiritually. I hear you Brian. I hear the peace and happiness in your spirit. I appreciate you so much, comforting me through this time because it has been quite difficult for me. You didn't have to help me but you did. I know now you are well taken care and you are getting so much love as the angels are rallying around you because you are one of the sweetest guys I know and you deserve all of that. I know why my son loves you so much, why I love you so much. My prayer now is that you did not leave us in vein...that others will live more freely and more cautiously because of you...and that even through your hardships on this earth, people will finally recognize what a wonderful person you really are. Thank you for all that you have contributed to my life. Until we meet again Brian, please know that you will always be close to my heart.?

“ Lord our God, the death of (Brian) recalls our human condition and the brevity of our lives on earth. But for those who believe in Your love, death is not the end, nor does it destroy the bonds that You forge in our lives. We share the faith of Your Son's disciples and the hope of the children of God. Bring the light of Christ's resurrection to this time of testing and pain as we pray for (Brian) and for those who love him, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
