

Brian Campbell

May 20, 1978 - November 5, 2020

Brian Campbell, son of the late Thomas Campbell, Jr. and Lorraine Coleman was born on May 20, 1978 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed his life on Thursday, November 5, 2020 after suffering a short illness. Brian was a social butterfly, he loved meeting people and making friends. He would make friends any and everywhere, no matter where he was. There was no place that Brian could go where someone was not calling out his name. Every person who knew Brian knew that he was a sneaker head, he knew every Jordan that was coming out and would stand in line to buy them. Not only was he a Jordan fan but he was a Las Vegas Raiders fan (previously known as the Oakland Raiders), you know if he had watched the game this past Sunday (November 8) he would be talking major trash because they won, "Raiders Nation!"

Brian was employed by the Maryland State Lottery for about 7 years, he loved his job, and he had a story to tell me every day. Brian attended Mergenthaler High School where he met his wife Qiana Fountain, they were young teens when they met but Brian knew that Qiana would one day be his wife. Brian and Qiana wed in 2003, together they had three children: two daughters Shayla Ross and Briana Campbell and one son Jalen Campbell. Brian had such a great spirit and loved the idea of family so much; it was only natural to make a family with him. Love for family is what I admired most about Brian. Brian tried to make an appearance at every event no matter whose event and somehow would find a way to be the life of the party .

Brian leaves to mourn: his wife, Qiana Fountain; his daughters, Shayla Ross, Briana Campbell; son, Jalen Campbell, his mother, Lorraine Coleman; sister, Tracy Cromwell; brother-in-law, Michael Cromwell; mother-in-law, Clara White; sisters-in-law, Troy Brown, Stacey White, Kim Arrington and Cleo White; brother-in-law, Larry White. Also, Brian leaves to mourn his bonus children, nephews: Shawn Campbell, Jajuan Campbell, Kevin Duppins, Gregory Duppins, William Mayo, Jr., Travis Brooks, and D'Andre Talley; nieces: Nae'Shaune Campbell, Ayonna Campbell, Madison Cromwell, MaKenna Cromwell, Patrice Johnson, Shenia Windley, MacKenzie White, Iyanna Arrington, and Kamaya Gough; and a host of great nieces, great nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and lifelong friends (so many to name, I did not want to leave anyone out).

“ Brian always had a beautiful smile and was so positive and kind. My favorite memories involve Brian rounding up his co-workers to strike a pose for holiday-themed photos for our employee newsletter. He even got the guys to wear silly hats and hold funny photo props. We miss you!
