“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ When you lose someone you love, it seems that time stands still. What may move through you is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, and even one more touch. You may wonder why Brian left this earth so soon, or why he left before you were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, you begin to remember not just that he died, but that he lived; and that his life gave you memories too beautiful to forget. We extend our deepest sympathy.

I miss you baby I saw you to day and you looked very much like you were just sleeping peacefully. I kissed your cheek and told you I would be there tomorrow to see and I will. Love your wife Felicia Canada
