“ This may seem funny but I went to St. Anns with Brian, I had such a crush on him as a kid; I loved the way he played guitar with Victor at mass and years later I saw him while doing grounds inspections for The Housing Authority; he wasn't the same so we did not speak but to me he was just as beautiful as he always was in a young girls heart and every now and again I thought of him and for some reason decided to look him up as I heard he had passed from Victor and to me it was a loss from a long time ago when to see him brought me so much secret happiness....he was my grade school crush and when my sister had a son she wanted a name....and so Brian it is...rest in peace beautiful.

“ I wish to extend my sincere condolences for the loss of Mr. Scott. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly informs us: "Thy dead live, their bodies will rise again. They that sleep in the earth will awake and shout for joy...The earth will bring those long dead to birth again."-The New English Bible. May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
