“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Sadly, I read of the passing of your loved one. Death is such a sad thing that we all have to endure at present, but it was not God's purpose for people to die. That is why very soon he will rid the world of this enemy forever. 1st Cor. 15:26 says, "As the enemy, death will be brought to nothing." We want our loved ones to be here with us forever, and that is God's desire as well, for people to live forever on this earth in peace and happiness. So one day this world will once again be a paradise just as it was when he created Adam and Eve. When that joyful day comes we will not be crying tears of sorrow, but tears of joy when our loved ones come back to life, never to die ever again, Acts 24: 15 says that there is going to be a ressurection of the righteous. May Jehovah give you the comfort you need to help you to endure.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“Gwen, just a note to remind you that "weeping will only endure for a night and then JOY will come in the morning." Hold fast to your memories of the years you two shared and know that God did not bring you to this point without having a plan already laid out to carry you and the rest of the family through this period. Loving regards also on behalf of my mother, Ms.Lula, and my brother and sister-- Bobby and Anita.##imported-begin##Joanne B. Tabon##imported-end##
