“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Brian. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ TO the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the family for the loss of your beloved Brian. Death is something we find to be so very painful. It's like an unreality knowing we can't see or talk to our loved one anymore. Jehovah God never wanted this for his earthly children. He desires all of his creations to live in peace and security in harmony with his will. That is why we pray, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth; just as it is in heaven. We will one day see this glorious purpose fulfilled if we are faithful to his word, and put our complete trust in him. Remeber, Jehovah God never fails his loyal ones, and the bible says about him, "You are opening your hands and satisfying the desire of every living thing." So one day, dear family, you have the wonderful opportunity of being with your Brian again. Please find comfort in God's promises, and may your cherished memories of happier days help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
