

Brian Lee Winder

March 10, 1981 - September 23, 2004

On Thursday, September 23, 2004, on the streets of Baltimore City, a precious life was taken into the Kingdom of God. The Lord took Brian home, where he would get eternal love forever and ever. Brian Lee Winder Jr., son of Antoinette McDonald and Brian Lee Winder Sr., was born on March 10, 1981 at Johns Hopkins Hospital and was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. As a boy Brian played T-ball at Northwood and was an “aqua bratt” at the Baltimore City Swim Club. Brian, affectionately known as B, Phoooh, and Choco-Bunny loved fast cars and his video games, but most of all he loved spending time with his children Briana and Dashawn. Brian was a warm and friendly young man with a “smile as bright as the sun.” Brian was deeply devoted to his family and was a protector of his mother, his brother (who preceded him in death) and his sisters, Unikue and Shanika. Brian leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Antoinette McDonald; his father, Brian Lee Winder, Sr.; his daughter; Briana; his son, DaShawn; a devoted Fiancee, LaShawna; two grandmothers, Brenda Hunter and Bobbie McDonald; one grandfather, Sanford Winder; one great-grandmother, Esther Jackson; three sisters, Unikue, Shanika and Tiersa; two brothers, Terrell and Torrance; five aunts, Wanda, Ocquanetta, Denise, Rochelle, and Sarrelle; two uncles, Albert and Anthony; one niece, Asiana Cothran; and one special friend, Kevin Jackson; stepmother, Nanette Winder; and a host of special cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. When the enemy death strikes, your grief can be great, even though you may hope in the resurrection. I want to encourage you to draw close to Almighty God through prayer. Notice what the bible says at Psalms 55:22... Throw your burdens upon Jehovah himself, And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter. I hope that you can find comfort in this scripture as I have through the years.##imported-begin##Ava Norton##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
