

Brian K. McCray

June 15, 1976 - May 2, 2017

BRIAN KEITH MCCRAY was born on June 15, 1976 to Paul N. McCray Sr. and Mary McCray in Baltimore, Maryland. On May 2, 2017 God called Bootsy home to eternal rest.

Brian received his education from the Baltimore City Public School System. At age 16 Bootsy enrolled in Job Corp where he received his GED along with a degree in carpentry. Boosty loved working with his hands; from cooking, cleaning, fixing things, and playing sports. He enjoyed playing basketball and watching football, but he treasured spending time with his daughters.

Bootsy was an all-around family man who put family first and loved his close friends deeply. He would always say "I got you Shawty". You could always count on him to make you laugh.

Brian was a member of the Pentecostal Jerusalem Holiness Church. Later in life he joined Mt. Sinai Baptist Church.

Brian worked various jobs including: D&S Transportation as a driver and a Technician at Jiffy Lube. His life dream was to become a writer.

Brian was preceded in death by: his brother, Paul McCray Jr.; grandfather, Charles Watson; grandparents, Bishop George and Maddie McCray, and uncle Raymond Watson.

Brian leaves to cherish his legacy: his parents, Paul and Mary McCray Sr; grandmother, Pastor Carolyn Watson; two daughters, LaQuana McCray and Shaniya Ambrose; brother, Terrance McCray; sister, Keiosha Wyche; (other brothers: Kevin, Kenny, and Kermit); grandson, Bryce King Smith; aunts, Elizabeth Watson and Michele Fields; uncles, Maurice Watson and Larry Fields; nephew, Kevin Jr.; niece, India; cousins, Lil Maurice, Tremain, Lynette, Marcus, Kaleel, and DaQuan; special friend, Nicole Krueger; and a host of other relatives and friends.
