“ To the wife and daughter of Mr. Davis, I am so sorry for your loss. When tragic things happen to our loved ones, it is truly a heartbreaking thing to endure. I didn't know him, but he sounded like a kind and wonderful person. My heart goes out to you. One day such tragedies will no longer occur. Sickness and death will soon be a thing of the past. Even the memory of such things will be forgotten, because Isaih 65:17 makes this promise: "For here I am creating new heaven and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." Know that Jehovah God, and his son Jesus care deeply about the pain and grief we go through when we lose a loved one in death, because God is love. 1st John 4,8. I know how hard this is for you to go through, but one day we have the promise, that we will see out loved ones again. may the ressurection hopw be a great source of comfort to you in the days ahead. John 5:28,29###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ To: Our Aunt, Earlene Creer, We know that this is a very difficult time for you as Brian was really your son. Our prayers are with you at this time and we know without a doubt that God will heal this wound. At a time like this, we must trust God, for His timing is always perfect, and many times, we don't understand His timing or His will, but we just trust that it's always perfect. So, as your heart feels lonely in the days ahead, trust God and trust His timing to heal your heart. Hold on to the memories and the good times that you shared with Brian, for these will sustain you. But in the meantime, trust God and we promise that he will heal your hurt. We love you and we are praying for your strength.##imported-begin##Victor and Shawn Bean##imported-end##
