“ My deepest sympathy is extended to family and friends on their loss, there are no words that will ease the pain you feel, call on the God of all comfort (2Corinthians 1:2-4) he will be there for you to help ease the pain, the God of comfort has promised that very soon the enemy death will be done away with forever (Revelation21:4), those lost to this enemy are promised to receive life again (Acts 24:15). What a wonderful blessing from Jehovah God to very soon be able to shout with joy Life without end at last. (John 3:16##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family of Brian. May the promise of the resurrection be a source of comfort to you in the days ahead. Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." John 10:10 tells us that Jesus gave his life so that we might have life, and have it in abundance. It was never God's purpose for us to die, and one day he will end this enemy death; that causes us so much pain. 1st Cor 15:26. Then all those who are sleeping in death will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. May these wonderful promises from Jehovah God and his son, Jesus, be a comfort to you in the days ahead. John 5:28,29###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##

“ I extend my deepest condolences for the loss of Mr. Campbell. Job chapter 14, verses 7,14-15 lovingly tells us about the hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with these words: "For there exists hope for even a tree. If it gets cut down, it will even sprout again, And its own twig will not cease to be. If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
