

Bridgette Tracy Kelley

May 26, 1964 - January 4, 2005

On the evening of January 4, 2005 after a lengthy illness Bridgette Kelley, was called to her eternal rest by her Heavenly Father. Bridgette the daughter of the late Joseph Kelly and Evangelist Hazel Kelley was born on May 26, 1964. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After graduation, she attended Baltimore City Community College where she pursued a degree in Fashion Design. During her earlier years, Bridgette was a very talented artist who loved to design unique clothing. She was also blessed with a beautiful radiant voice and loved to sing spiritual hymns. Bridgette was a very generous, caring, and loving person who was always willing to help anyone in need. Bridgette had the gift of encouragement, continuously praying for, and lifting up the spirits of her sisters and brothers in Christ, as well as countless others. And although she did not have any biological children, she sponsored three underprivileged children over seas, which is yet another example of her undying generosity and her caring heart. Bridgette accepted the Lord as her personal savior at an early age. She became a member of Gods End Time Deliverance Ministries where she was a licensed and ordained minister of the gospel. Bridgette was an outstanding example of God toward others. She gave generously to other ministries such as Voice of The Mytder, Joyce Myers and Benny Hynn Ministries. Bridgette held a bi-monthly Video Ministry in her home. Although Bridgette suffered from juvenile arthritis and was wheelchair confined she never allowed her circumstances to defeat her. Bridgette will be surely missed by all who knew and loved her. Bridgette

Kelly is survived by her loving and devoted mother Evangelist Hazel Kelley, aunts, uncles, cousins, church family and a host of friends.

“ Dearest Aunt Hazel, We love and will truly miss Bridgette. She was a joy to be with at all times. Her heart was full of love for all people. She is a true child of God and she has gone home to the father. May God shine his light upon you in this time of great sadness. In deepest sympathy and Love Bettie jean, Mugisha and Robert in Boston, Massachusetts##imported-begin##Bettie Jean Feruzi##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times like this comfort is needed more than ever. Please find comfort in the scriptures. Malachi 3:16 states that Almighty God has a book of remembrance. He also promises that when he opens that book those that are in it will be brought back to life (John 5:28,29) and will never die again. Please let these scriptures comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. A person who is giving and caring makes life pleasant for others. When they are not around they are really missed. The Creator of man doesn't forget those who have died. Notice what Job 14:14, 15 says- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Knowing what God's Word says, our loved ones won't have to only be a memory. I hope you find comfort in this brief note.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
