

Brielle C. Newland

June 14, 1988 - September 3, 2007

Brielle Chaner Newland (AKA, Nu-Nu, Bre or Breezy) was born on June 14, 1988 at the Presbyterian Medical Center in New York City. Bre moved to Baltimore at a very young age and attended Baltimore County Schools. She graduated from Dundalk Senior School in 2006 and was currently attending the University of Maryland in Eastern Shore pursuing her Bachelors Degree in Biology. Bre enjoyed shopping, dancing, listening to music, talking on the phone, taking pictures and dressing up her "My Space Page". To know Brezzy was to know as angel sent from Heaven up above. She left a lasting impression on everyone she came in contact with. You can't forget those dimples and that long pretty hair. Brielle really loved her friends. She leaves to mourn her mother, Keisha Newland; her father, Jesse (Russell) Atkins; 1 sister, Tionne Evans; 1 brother, Rhamel Horlback; 2 grandmother's, Vivian Newland and Peggy Atkins; 1 great grandfather, Jerome Clanton; Aunts, Uncles, dozen of cousins; 2 godchildren, Jamari (Bo-Bo) and Kashay; a stadium of friends and a smile you will never forget. To be like Brielle you have to want to achieve excellence in life and aim very high. Dr. Brielle Chaner Newland will truly be missed.

It's been almost 7 years and Your pictures are still in the same frames and you are still my screen saver. For some reason today, you are heavy on my mind. My eyes are watering and I am sad. Words will NEVER express how much I love you. You were my niece, my other daughter, my daughters best friend and someone who truly loved and adored me. I know I haven't been on here in a while but I've gotten to the point where I'm comfortable within myself to keep your memories alive. By talking with Tee and Mel, just looking back at all the videos that I have of as well as pictures. You had such a wonderful, joyous time down here with us. The footage of you dancing and singing when you were young is amazing . Girl you would crack up laughing if you could see your childhood pictures. There are a lot of new lil siblings in our family. Oh yeah Shawn has a granddaughter from Meka, Kendall has a granddaughter from Sade and Zette has two granddaughters from Tiya. I'm not a grandma yet but I wonder if you were here if I would have been one by now. (Probably not Lol) but it's ok though. One day I'll be coming on here telling you that I'm finally gonna be one but besides all of that I'm happy with myself. I miss you, Love you and will definitely see you again when I reach those pearly gates.

“ Hey Bre. It's me your #1 FRIEND. Mommy. I would like to start off by saying we wish you were here to share some of the new things in our life that we're experiencing down here in the South. So far I'm loving the atmosphere and the way things are going for us. You know it was kind of difficult for your siblings at first but they're coming along. I know that you would have made a good situation out of this because you have no problem with meeting new people. Your smile would have caught alot of peoples attention, Your lil sassy ways would have probably found you a nice lil country man to introduce himself to you so hat you could say (Ma he's country and a clown) Haha. I know you like a book! I miss all those things about you and you thinking that you were a super model. We all miss and wonder about what you would have been like fight now? What you would have been doing and what you would have looked like as a GROWN woman? We know you wouldn't have gained much weight but you would have been a lil, petite sexy lil mama. I can go on but I'll have to save some for later, I had to come say a couple of things on here to pull me thriugh the rest of this day. It really makes my day to come here and vent alot of the time. I try not to bother nobody because I don't want sympathy and I don't wanna mess up nobody's day when I'm feeling a LITTLE DOWN but when I come to this site my Spirits jump right back to feeling good. So on that note THANKS for listening.. LOVE MOMkKEE

Hi Bre. I have had such a hard time trying to get back into this site. I thought I lost contact with you and didn't know what else to do besides visit the cemetery. This site helped me along the way of healing and moving forward with my life. It let me express myself to the fullest and not being afraid to let my feelings go! I'm more comfortable with myself and now I am able to move on. At 1 point and time in my life I thought that I might die here with you but that's not what GOD has planned for me. He has allowed me to walk and spread my wings... Not to be afraid to learn new things and different places. So on that note I will be relocating and trying something different. I know that you already know what's going on with me but I still wanted to let that out to you on my own. I often wonder what you would have been like today in this day and age. A lot of people say A DIVA!!!!!! They say you know she had it going on with her lil prissy self and I just say I KNOW RIGHT she was something else. I miss the hell out of you and I know that everyone else does too... Tee and Mel are doing wonderful and doing what they have to do to keep busy. I just have so much to say but I'll save some for later!!! I LOVE YOU LIKE A FAT KID LOVES CAKE HAHHAHA. Just wanted to smile as I wrote that 1.. LOVE YOUR MOMMY

My heart is broken yet again. When you left my house the day before God called you home 3 years ago I never would have thought that would be the last time I saw you on this side. I just thank God we always left eachother with a hug and kiss. I remember you being anxious to go to the mall. You and Lavette and me telling you to wait for Tynekua. I thank God for that moment and for those last hours Tynekua was able to spend with you, her best friend, cousin/sister. Now I am reflecting on the last day I saw my Dad on this side and then my Grandma..Who would have thought???Look out for them Bre. Kepp them smiling as you always did for us. Happy Easter baby. “ Hi there sweetheart. Happy New Year to you Angel! I know you are looking down on us saying, "I'm okay now what's wrong with ya'll". We just love and miss you so much. New Year was hard for Tyenkua. You and her have been going to church and then to the club each year for New Year's. I told ya'll that was triphling, church and then the club(smile). This year she didn't have anyone to go to church with her and she cried forever. Finally at about 11:30 I told her to get dressed and we went out together. So, she didn't make it to the club. She misses you so much. I often wish I could ease the pain but I know time and prayer will. You were one of life's most prize possessions and sweetheart we will miss you FOREVER. See you in eternity. “ Hi Sexy, It's me the one and only. As you know me and ryeisha are MASON'S (Carter) GOD-MOTHERS and were proud of that and he is soooooo cute. I wish you were actually here to see and enjoy him. I know that you see him in your own way and all but you know what I'm saying. I'll be coming out there to see you very soon. Shaniece came over to see me and she's having a lil girl whose middle name is gonna be Chaneer after you too. I'm really loving the fact that everybody has really kept their word and they still come to see me as if you were still here. I think they're kind of scared to actually spend the night because your not around and they're already pushing themselves to still come and see us. The baby shower for Tiya is Sat. and guess who else is having a baby (BOY) KELLY&AARON and I am so happy for them. She wants to come and see me but she can't because it hurts her sooo bad and she still can't face me without crying. I truly understand because she had a special bond with you and it really tears her up knowing that her LIL SIS has gone on to HEAVEN. She's excused though. I told AARON that I had some nice pics of you and shay and I wanted him to have copies for shay to still know that you were and will always be her GOD-MOMMY. Until next time sexy I think MOMMY has said enough for 1 night. P.S i forgot to tell you that I took KHI OUT FOR VALENTINE'S Day on your behalf and we had a nice time on our lil date. “ Hi Suga Mama, Hi Sweetie, How's everything going on up there in that beautiful mansion that you live in, As for this place we're doing down here. It's so lonely in this house without you in here making us laugh at how you really thought that you were a real celebrity. I'm looking at different houses now so that I can see which 1 fits your description. I have to move on now because there are so many memories of you in here and we look for you to come through the door on Fri. so I think that we need a different surrounding and maybe that will give us a different feeling on things. We all try to stay strong for 1 another and believe me it's not an easy task, But we support each other to the fullest. Tionne is trying her best to be a big sis like you were to Mel and I know that it's hard because that was your job, but she's still trying though. I didn't realize how much you were needed around here to play the BIB-SIS role .Anyway Bre until tomorrow MOMMY loves you and will check in later. Love Mommy###imported-begin##Mommy###imported-end##

“ Hey Suga Mama, What's going on? As for Me, Tee, & Mel were doing fine. I have noticed something about this site here. You and I both know that I come to this page to express my feelings to you because this is my only way of getting through this ordeal of losing my child (YOU). Then we have people that get on here and act like they miss you so much and had so much LOVE for you, But the truth is they are just being FUCKING NOSEY and still trying to figure out why GOD has me walking around so strong and humble as I am. They don't understand how I do it. But if they really believed in GOD then they wouldn't have to ? themselves wondering how I do it. I'm writing this to you because I know that you hear me loud and clear and you're laughing because you and I both know who they are and what I'm talking about. I have came too far now to let someone break my good spirit and the trust that I have in GOD to believe that this is my way of reaching out to you and not allowing myself to let the devil take control of my well being. I just had to come through to have one of our mother-daughter meetings as we use to have in my room. Mommy loves you more than anything and always will. Even though i knew her a very long time ago and only for a short period of time, just reading the articles and the lovely poems written bout her brought tears to my eyes. Even back then i still remember her being a very nice and friendly child esp. towards my son. I sat up half the night just reading alot about how much she was loved and missed and i see she turn out to be a very loving, caring friendly young lady. i truly believe god dont give us more then we can bare and God we see u and your family threw this, and make it easier and easier as the years go by. “ Hi there Angel, Just coming by to say I love you. I know you were looking down at us the week-end and cracking up!!!Sha went to Prom(AGAIN) You know we talked about you and your Prom days... Your Mom, Mel and Tee were at the house. Girl, I know you were laughing your butt off when you saw your Mom in here 80's gear. She was dressed to impress for a 80's party she was going to. I took pictures and just downloaded them.(smile)Girl you know Key really looked good and we had a good laugh. Sunday was Mother's Day. We took her some goodies. She said several people stopped by to pay her some respect for Mother's Day. My God you had some awesome friends. Well, I'll talk to you soon. We love you Bre....Until we meet again. It's not because of me not wanting to get on here anymore it's just that you and I have been having our GURL 2 GURL conversations with each other and like I once told you before I can't come through here like I use to because everything I say isn't for everybody to know. EVERYBODY knows already that you are well taken care of and so am I. You only make me smile even harder when I think of your smile and dimples. I have so much faith in GOD and he has shown me so much in this lifetime of mine. I'm doing fine and just taking life 1 day at a a time. I know that we'll have good times again. I don't know when but one day we will meet again. “ Hey Angel, I know you were laughing at us...Running around like chickens with our heads cut off trying to through this surprise party for your Mom. It went down on Saturday. Keisha had a ball. Bre everyone showed up and showed her a good time. The Dynasty, their lil Sis, Tionne and of course Tyrelle and Vanita chipped in and took care of the decorations. Boobie made sure the bar was stocked, DJ was awesome and security was on hand..Ms. Poopie cooked up a storm and all else fell into place. It was just all in all a good party. Keish is the big 40...Did you see her dancing the night away?? I asked you last week to breeze by and let us know you where in the house. I knew you were there especially when Lavette, Rye and Tynekua ended up having a moment(as they called) in the bathroom. Any way yesterday you Mommy's legs was hurting from all the dancing, Tynekua was hung over and Tyrelle's wrist is fractured. Wow all in a night's fun. Your Grandma Vivian, Zette, and Tia were all there too. Zette and your Mommy lit the floor up. I hummed, I know you're shinning down on us from Heaven...Someone said, you can't let those balloons off in the sky, you will kill the birds. “ Hello Queen Bre, I know that you're saying to yourself (IT'S ABOUT TIME) But guess what? I have been carrying u with me for the last 21 yr's and it don't stop just bcause ur not here with me in the flesh. I feel ur presence everyday as I wake up and decide to do anything. I haven't been on this site in a while bcause I speak out loud and I know that you hear me as well as I feel ur presence. Today is x-mas and I gave Mel a box with money and a cell phone in it and when he saw who it came from he just cried and I told him not to cry bcause he was gonna make me cry. Then I told him if u wanna cry go ahead it's alright to do so. We just miss u soooooo much around it's not funny. Tee has a flat screen t.v from u and she didn't know who it was from either but now she knows and she's just glad to know that you're still the big sis in this house. Boobie has something from you also. He don't know that but I got him something from you too. You're my child but you're also MY inspiration. You were more than amazing. You were an ANGEL on borrowed time and here to show ME who I really am. Which is an ANGEL also. Those that come into my Life no exactly what I mean when I let them in. “ I love you sweetheart. The holidays are here. This is hard for all of us. Yesterday was a little weird. We found some keys in De Andre's room. They have been sitting on the dresser. I noticed the key chain said UMES. I told Ernest "these must be Brielle's. When Tynekua came home I asked her if she knew who's keys they were. She could not believe her eyes. She said, Mommy do you know how long Brielle was looking for these keys? Well Bre, Auntie has them. I wish you were here for me to give them to you personally. I will forever love and miss you. “ Please accept my sincere sympathy in your time of bereavement. Death is truly like an enemy but the Bible holds out the wonderful hope of the resurrection and under God's Kingdom, Jehovah promised that one day, death will be no more. At Revelation 21:4 it reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." I realize that this is indeed a painful time for the family and there are so many comforting Scriptures available that help soothe the pain for now. Death was never supposed to be an event that mankind experienced; however, the first man Adam condemned all of mankind by disobeying the command not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and bad. How thankful we are that Jehovah immediately put into place a remedy to reverse that damage. Jehovah's remedy was to allow Christ Jesus to lay down his perfect life so that one day soon, that enemy death would be forever done away with! If you'd like more information, please post another message in this guest book.###imported-begin###A. Robinson###imported-end###

“ Bre, Christmas has come and gone. This is so hard. I called your Mom at exactly midnight to say Merry Christmas. It broke my heart just to hear her voice. Tynekua is so hurt. Living life without her other half is so hard. A simple memory brings her to tears. The girls are all still sticking close together. I thank God for the beautiful yet unique relationship-sisterhood you all shared. I also thank God for you Bre. All of the memories and the very special bond we had will forever live in my heart. I wish you were here. God knows how my heart aches for you. There is some peace in knowing that on glad morning when my life is over, I too will fly away and see my beautiful niece again. I will forever love you!!!##imported-begin##Maurisha##imported-end##

“ Hi sweetheart, It is Aunt Risha once again. Just coming to your guestbook to say I love you. You already know, Tynekua & Rhamell's birthday was yesterday. Tynekua didn't want to do much of anything because she said it just is not right or the same without you. We gave her a surprise dinner party of mostly family. Looking around the room and feeling the void of your not being there hurts so bad. I took the girls away on Friday. The only thing that was missing was you. This is still so unreal. The little 5 year old beauty who I was as proud to call neicy as she was to call me Aunty is no longer here in the flesh. Yet you have risen to that wonderful place called HEAVEN that we all hope to one day go. Rest on!! So many people love and miss you. God works in mysterious ways. Neicy, sit back and watch how God works. Because of who you were to EACH of your friends, the party in your name is going to be the event of the year. Your light will shine as bright as ever. I know we have said this 1000 times since you were little, I love you Bre.##imported-begin##Maurisha##imported-end##

“ Bre, I miss u soo much that it can not in any way be expressed through words. Im not even sure where to begin. Im still a little confused as to why this had to happen and especially to u. I still remember that day in chemistry when you started talking to me. I thought it was so nice because most people stayed to themselves or already formed clicks in the class. I was so worried and stressed about how I would do in that class, but you helped me out so much. We encouraged each other to do right. I remember all the talks and text we would send to each other. We always had a story to tell one another. The notes, the naps, the laughs, all in Kananen. Remember when we both got "d"s in bio..lol we were so mad. I just want you to know that I appreciated our friendship. Mainly because you cant always count on just anyone to be your friend, but you were geniune. you had a smile that would light up a room. even when we had sad faces dreading going to boring chem.lol! Whenever I think about the accident I feel so bad because I felt like maybe I could have done more while out there. Even though I had no idea it was you, my heart still went out to the family of the person. Then when I realized it was you, I felt like a million bricks had fallen on me. Thats why immediately I wanted to do something. I felt like that was the least I could do. Its so hard to think about it because the harsh reality is this is reality whether or not I want to face it or not. But I am truely sorry for not doing more out there. Regardless to if it could of helped or not I just wish I could have tried. I stay in contact with your mom. It helps me deal with your loss. She always is there to talk and grieve to. Some times I feel like your there talking through her. I kow that she is very proud of you but you should also be proud of her.(although im sure u r). ok im done, i hope i didnt take up too much of ur time because I know ur up there have fun partying. so untill we meet again...

“ Hi sweetie, Here I go again. Just needing to reach out and say I love you. Sweetheart, this is still so hard. I never thought something could affect me like this. I have watched you grow from a young child into this vibrant young lady. God knows we have shared so much. I miss the little things. The phone calls. You coming through just to say Aunt Risha I love you. I thank you so much for being the wonderful young lady you were. Most of all I thank you and God for the unconditional love and unique friendship you and Tynekua were blessed to share. Never in a million years did I think we would be communicating this way. For years I have come to this website. Now I am using it as a way to communicate with you. Brielle, I will love you forever. The void in our hearts will forever ache for you. Thank you for loving me back. Thank you for being a part of my family. Thank you for the Aunt/Niece relationship we had. Lastly, I thank God for giving us the opportunity to love eachother. I know how mushy I am with always giving and wanting hugs and always saying how much I love you all. Sha calls me a clown and you would call her one, but I must say, I thank God for my mushiness because who would have thought that on that Labor Day as you left my house after giving me a hug would be my last time holding you and hearing your voice. Thank you Bre. I will love you FOREVER!!!!##imported-begin##Maurisha##imported-end##

“ Hi sweetheart. I am up late and you are heavy on my mind. I came here again just to say I love you. I know you see and hear this from all of us everyday. Bre, it's hard. I sing this old hymn, "It's(SHE'S) in my heart, It's(SHE'S) in my heart, what can I ever do but shout? It's(SHE'S) in my heart, it's(SHE'S) in my heart." Sha and the rest of the family know what I am going through when I start that hymn. I just thank God for you. I thank your Mom for sharing you with us. It is so hard to believe you are gone in the flesh. I hold onto to the many years and wonderful memories we have. From that young little girl in NY City on 155th to the beautiful young lady I was blessed enough to watch grow. You are so special. My "niece", the "niece/aunt relationship we had". I still remember the very first time you said Aunt Risha. What I would not give to hear those words again. I pray to God to heal the emptiness we all have in the loss of you. Rest on sweetness. I know you are having a ball dancing around in Heaven. Just know that One glad morning when our lives on Earth are over, we will all see you again.##imported-begin##Maurisha White##imported-end##

“ Hi sweetheart. It's Valentines Day and you know I had to say Happy Valentine's Day to you. It seems your presence has been very close over the past couple of days. Last night Tynekua and I were at Value City. I know you heard us talking about you and then you know how they play music over the speaker, the song from your Myspace started playing. All I could say was ok Bre. And then this morning...Tynekua had her interview, you know how she gets all nervous about evrything. Well, she was driving and there was a car in front of her who's liscence plate read JUST BRE. When she called and told me that, I said I know that's right, Bre is letting you know she is right there with you like she has always been. I love you sweetheart. Our lives have not been the same since you left. But because you are in Heaven, we realize our loss is great but you have gained Eternity.##imported-begin##Maurisha White##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Brielle. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

We ended up talking about our careers, kids and college/housing. I told her Tynekua was at Howard and she said he daughter was at UMES. I told her my niece use to go to UMES. We in our conversation we spoke of how hard it is to get housing at these schools. I shared Tynekua having an apartment. She said she thought she was going to have to get her daughter an apartment this year, then at the last moment she was told of a room opening. She was offered the room of a young lady that had passed in a car accident. I know you saw the reaction on Aunt Risha's face. What a samll world this is. My heart aches and breaks at the thought of losing you. I know you are looking down at each of us. God knows you are now able to see everything and everyone at face value. I love you Bre. I cant tell you how proud I am of you, you made life an hour glass for me. You showed me that dedication and determination goes a long way. You know Cousin Crystal is book smart but you showed me that in the meantime don't but life on the shelf. I love you much Bre and Kaori will always know who you were and what you meant to our lives. You ran us all around that campus. Showing off your lil cousin to all of the young ladies. At that time, he did not want to attend. Now, here we are 1 year later and he is planning on going there in the Fall. Please sweetheart, drop a bug in some of your old friends and Professor's ears. “ Hi there sweetheart. It's me again, coming to say I love you. These past few weeks have been very emotional. I am missing you like crazy. Tynekua has been going through some things that only you and her would share. Stop by to let her know you are still with her. Last week I was going through all of my Myspace comments. I was shocked to come across the many comments you used to leave for me. The best one was the one you sent saying, "I love my Aunt". It had your picture in the middle of this box with a heart. How in the world did you create that? Sweetheart, I love and miss you so much. My God I NEVER imagined something could hurt so much and for so long. Whisper to God and ask HIM to give your loved ones some healing. We know you are with Jesus but that does not stop the tears from flowing. Rest on OUR Angel. One glad morning when our lives here on Earth is done, we will see your beautiful face again. My love Always, Aunt Risha##imported-begin##Maurisha White##imported-end##

“ Hey Bre. Its seems absurd for me to writing this. Last year this time you was still smiling the smile that would light up a room. You have made such an impact on so many people but I could never forget how willing you was to help me out last summer (now I'm crying). I remember saying Bre if you wanna stay home that last week it'll be ok..You was like nope Crystal you need my help..See you Tuesday. I'm miss your lil funky self...Ms Grownie. I saw a lil girl in the park yesterday struting her stuff like you used to as a kid..girl she even had good hair and dimples. lol. I didn't wanna tell your Grandma how much she reminded me of you because I didn't want to damper her spirits...but I know she noticed. Bre you n Tae were my baby cousins. I never thought I would witness anyone's whole lifespan but it wasn't until you entered eternal rest that I realized Brielle that I witnessed and still witnessing your life @ work. Kaori is as grown as ever and as I promised she knows Nu-Nu...she's a myspace Queen...she has taken that up after you. Well Bre as tomorrow will be somber I will celebrate the fact that God blessed us to be your cousin and friend. rest on sweet angel. kiss the Nana's for me. WE LOVE U...Smoothes###imported-begin###Cuz Crystal###imported-end##

“ Hey Bre, This is a bittersweet day for me. As you know today is my bday, but this is also the day that you left this earth. I cans till remember that day Bre. Its hard for me to even write this without crying because it still hurts so much. I never lost anyone this young so this has really affected me and even til this day I cant get over ur death. As much as I want to be happy and celebrate I really cant because I cant help but only think how ur mom and family feels today. Just last year we were partying it up. The funny thing is I wasnt even suppose to go to the party, and the other Briel called and asked me to go. Looking back im glad that she did since that was the last time I would see you. We danced and laughed. I can still picture ur face as u were standing by the car saying "see you at school nae nae". Only if I would have knew maybe I would have done things differently, like maybe i would have given u a hug or told u how much u meant to me...Im in the library so im really trying my best not to cry.lol!Just know that you are not forgotten and will never be. You were an inspiration to me while you where here on earth and u still r. Whenever I feel like I dont feel like doing something, I feel obligated to do it, because I know you would have done it. I went to Physics today and what a suprise, its in the same classroom that u and i met. I sat in the row in front of ur old seat, and as i would turn my back around I felt like you were there like " come on nae we need this class" lol. well thank you cus Im going to do it, and when i finish, we will finish. I love you##imported-begin##Trenae##imported-end##

“Hi there sweetie. It's hard to believe it has benn one year since you were physically taken from us. Who would have thought when you came to our annual Labor Day/DeAndre's birthday cook-out last year that would be the last time we would see you. I remember when you came in, you intorduced your girlfriend from school, went in the house looking for Tynekua after being in NY most of the summer. You and Sha had you little words as you always did and you headed upstairs looking for your best friend. You went into DeAndre's room and jumped on that little twin bed right along with her. You were so anxious to get to the mall to get something to wear to the all white party. I remebering telling you and Tynekua not to leave until DeAndre opened his presents. Tynekua told you to go ahead but I asked you to wait for her. You said I am not leaving yet Auntie niot until the ice cream and cake. As you see, this year I broke the family traditiona and did not hold that Labor Day/DeAndre birthday cook-out. It was just too much. I love and miss you so much Bre. So many memories yet so many regrets. I am most grateful for our closeness. I miss the phone calls, you borrowing my car and me asking you to pick Sha up from school. UMES was the 1 school you didn't even think to apply to. That application took us forever to complete. But look at how it worked out. You loved it down there, you met great friends and had the opportunity to experience college life. As you know, yesterday, we took Kevin to UMES. Remember when I brought him there to see you? You took us on your own little tour. It was more like you showing off your little cousin to all of the ladies.LOL Well, that is where he ended up going. I was so skeptical about him going down there but he is going to finish it out for you baby. Tynekua went with us to take him. She was drining and got emotional on 50 so she had to let Kevin drive. I didn't realize that was her first time down there as she didn't get the chance to go down while you were there. Who would have thought we would have to drive that same road 1 year after we lost you out there? Baby I am so glad I always told you I loved you. I am also glad I always get those hugs from you all. I know sometimes you all say her she comes wanting another hug. I thank God for you spending the day before your final day with us. We are a close family and I am most blessed you were apart of it. Rest on. Watch over Kevin at UMES. Send some of your friends his way. We will continue to love and support Your Mom, Boobie, Tee and Mel. I will foreve love and think of you. Your Aunt, Risha##imported-begin##Maurisha White##imported-end##

“ *HI NU-NU, WELL HONEY CHILD LET ME TELL YOU, YESTERDAY WAS A WONDERFUL DAY FOR ME. ME, BOOBIE, AND TONYA CAME TO SEE YOU FIRST AND THEN WE CAME HOME AND HAD A LITTLE COOK OUT IN FRONT OF THE HOUSE. WHICH TURNED OUT TO BE REAL NICE. ALOT OF PEOPLE SHOWED UP AND SHARED SOME WONDERFUL THINGS ABOUT US AT THE CANDLE LIGHT VISUAL. I TELL YOU IT REALLY SHOWS HOW MUCH ATTENTION SOMEONE IS PAYING WHEN YOU THINK NO ONE REALLY CARES ABOUT YOU AND HOW YOU HANDLE YOURSELF. I REALLY DID APPRECIATE HAVING YOU AS A PART OF MY LIFE FOR THE PERIOD OF TIME THAT GOD HAS ALLOWED YOU TO BE IN IT. IT WOULD REALLY BE SELFISH NOT TO WANT TO SHARE SUCH AN ANGEL WITH EVERYONE SUCH AS YOURSELF WITH THE WORLD. WE ALL WERE PUT HERE FOR A GOOD REASON AND YOU MADE THAT SAYING SO TRUE. TRUST ME WHEN I TELL YOU THIS! WELL I JUST HAD TO COME THROUGH TO SHARE MY FEELINGS WITH YOU AND TO LET YOU KNOW THAT YES YOUR STILL AROUND MAKING ALOT OF NOISE.
