“ When I received the sad news of the passing of my childhood friend, and neighbor, Brigitte (Chinkey) Murray, my heart dropped. I will always remember sharing the early part of my life with her especially playing outside after school and on the weekends. We compared dolls, doll clothes; and, played hopscotch, tag, hide and seek, checkers, and card games. I also vividly remembered all of us piling into her grandfather's four door sedan for those last minute rides to school. We filled our summers with nonstop activities, playing jacks, jumping rope, and skating in the heat of the day. Later, when evening came we sat near the front porch, chatting, joking, and people watching until her mom or my mom yelled that it was time to come inside. We often wondered about what careers we would pursue, what the future would bring. I will never forget Brigitte (Chinkey) and the good times we shared, back in the day. My profoundest condolences go out to her close friends, and family members, especially her mother, Ms. Ernestine Murphy. Rest in Peace and Power, Madam Brigitte Murray (AKA) Chinkey. 🦋🙏❤️
