“ RIP Brigitte, I will always remember all the good times we had from the ward to high school. From the dump- to Bridges store where we bought Big bens- to swinging on the rope behind the store - to the great days at John Marshall High School. Rest easy my childhood friend and God Speed.

To Brigitte(Skinny-Pimp) We both claimed to each other to be sisters for life and I enjoyed telling anyone that you were my big sis.. Words just cannot describe my feelings since you passed, all with good memories and love from day one as children growing up in Gilpin. I will always love you for life RIP BIG SIS!! ❤️
