

Britney Bryant

January 15, 1988 - May 2, 2022

Britney Marie Bryant was affectionately called Bear by her dad and Brit-Brit by her mother and other close friends and relatives. She was also known as Estelle to her FB friends. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 15, 1988 to Lewis Bryant and Maria Wyatt-Hobbs.

Britney attended and graduated from Evangelical Christian Academy elementary School. She attended St. Mary's Middle School and Baltimore City College high school and graduated with honors from both schools. She furthered her education by attending Chestnut Hill College in Philadelphia, PA in which she majored in International Business, and continued her education at the University of Maryland, College Park.

She worked for AAA of Delaware as a COVID representative. She was known for her due diligence and hard work ethics.

Britney loved being around family and friends. She loved baking especially for her kids. She had many interests including drawing, reading all types of literature, dancing including ballet in her formative years and posing for the camera. She was fun loving and had the best sense of humor. Her laughter and smile were infectious, as you can see in these photos. She traveled to Paris, France and loved traveling.

She was such an articulate and bright young woman. She embraced motherhood and kept a very watchful eye on her two precious boys that she loved deeply.

Britney was preceded in death by her paternal Grandmother Naomi Bryant, aunts Sherri Wyatt-Hux and aunt Yvonne Wyatt.

She leaves to mourn her passing: two sons Raziel and Aiden Williams,

Lewis Bryant 3rd (her dad) , Maria Wyatt-Hobbs (her mom), Christopher Bryant (brother), Lewis Bryant 2nd (grandfather), Delores M. Bannister (grandmother), Thomas E. Wyatt (grandfather), Thomas D. Wyatt (uncle), Sheila M. Wyatt (aunt), Grant Chism (uncle), Rickey and Starr Wyatt (uncle and aunt), Jeffrey M. Wyatt, (uncle and Godfather), Lisa Hopkins (Godmother) and a host of many close cousins and friends.

“ I still can't believe you are gone, last time I talked to you was before you a 3 months before you passed, last thing you said to me was I love you and I will call you back when I can. I never got that call. Until your fiance contacted me on fb to let me know, after the funeral was over a month later. I'm still hurting. I love you too 😊👍
